BUT IT'S STUCK IN MUD

'Derelict Barge' Captured

One of Sausalito's two "derelict barges" was captured near the San Francisco lightship yesterday by a Coast Guard fleet, and at noon today was stuck in the mud off the Spinnaker restaurant.

Six vessels pushed and pulled trying to dislodge it.

A second barge was reported to be found 30 miles at sea by the Coast Guard and was being towed back to Sausalito.

The unwanted former Navy targets will not return to Shelter Cove, said City Mgr. Charles A. Brown — at least, not if he can help it. He said if efforts are made to return the barges, he will ask City Atty. Leland H. Jordan to get an injunction or restraining order against this.

The barges, last claimed by Douglas Thompson Sr. of the Portofino Riviera apartments, were used as breakwaters in Shelter Cove.

One took off Monday and zigzagged around the bay, then out the Golden Gate. The Coast Guard sent three cutters, the Columbine, Calumet and Magnolia, and lassoed the barge. They reported the barge had come apart but that it had been put back together again. They also reported the barge as a "menace to navigation."

Men and ships "wrestled" all night with the barge, according to Brown. As they tried to get it to the Army Engineers Base yard in Sausalito, the 80-foot barge, which draws 18 feet of water, got off the regular channel and stuck in a minus tide.

The Army engineers were using their two debris collecting boats, Coyote and Racoon as well as their tug, Maryfield. Three other vessels were also in the act. None could get the barge free.

Sausalito residents, usually willing to stop for the unusual, were enjoying the maneuvers. Attorney Hugh Lawrence said "It is funny to watch," and Harold Henderson who lives on the hill at 252 San Carlos Avenue, said he was enjoying the show but "I'm wondering what it is all about."

'CRUISE' THROUGH LARKSPUR

CHP Concerned When Big Boats Take To Highways

The California Highway Patrol does not include waterways in its domain, but when boats—large boats that exceed the width limits—the patrol is interested.

Lt. Alex Koven of the San Rafael office of the CHP said he would like some more information on two big yachts that yesterday cruised slowly through Larkspur, across to Sir Francis Drake Boulevard and on to the north.

Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co. is also interested in the big boats. Something very tall passing along Sir Francis Drake Boulevard at the entrance to College of Marin clipped three wires at about 1:45 p.m. yesterday. It was probably those boats, said R. S. Roach, assistant manager at the phone company's San Rafael office.

The boats were believed to have been enroute from the 10-day San Francisco International Sports and Boat Show which ended Sunday. One observer said both boats were from Suisun City, Solano County.

Lieutenant Koven said no county permits were issued for hauling wide loads yesterday. He figures the boats took the back ways "surreptitiously" to avoid notice of the patrol.

Reed Board Shuns School Tax Request

By CORENA GREEN

A crystal ball cannot solve all of the school board's problems but it certainly would have helped the Reed Union School District trustees last night.

Unconvinced that the district should budget within the present $2.25 operating tax rate, Trustee Richard J. MacLaury urged that the board ask the voters to approve a tax increase this spring.

With an additional 300 students anticipated next fall, MacLaury felt budgeting within the same tax rate would be a step backward.

DISTRICT POLICY

"It has always been the policy of this district to reply to the community demands for the best education possible. We should not be governed by politics. We should ask ourselves what kind of program is ideal, decide, then go to the people. By not doing so, we are afraid the community does not have such high ideals," he said.

MacLaury's suggestion followed an explanation by Supt. Edward C. Pino that the budget for 1963-64 was "austere."

Pino said it would provide a reasonable teacher-pupil ratio but not meet board policy of 25 students per class.

It will provide "minimal" administrative, supervisory clerical and maintenance, and special instruction personnel, he said, and "minimal" undistributed reserves.

It will offer seventh and eighth graders at Del Mar School home economics, manual arts and other special subjects to a limited extent.

HOPED FOR MORE

Pino said he had hoped to do more for accelerated and remedial students.

Although support for MacLaury's position came from the spectators, the other four board members were unwilling to seek a tax raise this year but felt one will be necessary next year.

Chairman David R. Ring felt it was too soon following a bond election at which the voters were promised "no increase in taxes."

MacLaury's motion that the district go to the voters asking for a tax increase died for lack of a second. A second mo-

D. C. In Pandemonium Over Fake Bomb Threat

'Madman' Claims He Can Impeach Kennedy

WASHINGTON (AP)—A man with a device of wires and five-gallon cans attached to his automobile drove over the sidewalk to an entrance to the Justice Department building today and kept downtown Washington in pandemonium for an hour and a half with a fake bomb threat.

He was finally subdued with tear gas, and police reported they found nothing explosive.

From shelter beneath the car the man, apparently about 38 or 40 years old, kept demanding to see FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover.

Deputy Police Chief G. R. Walbrodt, one of several who tried to talk the man out of his project, said he claimed to have "certain information about the operations of the government of this country and about certain rackets that he would divulge only to J. Edgar Hoover."

Ex-Newsman New Deputy For Garety

A Santa Venetia journalist, who became an attorney last month after 13 years in the newspaper field, will join the Marin County District Attorney's staff as deputy district attorney on March 8.

Dist. Atty. Roger P. Garety today announced the appointment of William L. Mackey, 35, of 113 Birch Way, Santa Venetia. He will resign as a staff writer for the San Francisco Examiner, where he has been employed for seven years.

Mackey graduated from San Francisco Law School last June after attending evening courses for nearly five years. He was admitted to practice law last Jan. 15.

He and his wife, Alberta, have six children. The youngsters are William III, 12; Rob Ray, 9; Steven, 6; Margaret Ann, 4; Christopher, 3, and Mary Bernadette, 18 months.

A native of New Jersey, Mackey, completed three years undergraduate work in liberal arts at Niagara University, Niagara Falls, N. Y.; Sampson College, Geneva, N. Y., and New York University. He is a Marine Corps veteran of World War II and served a year in China at the close of the war during the repatriation of Japanese military forces.

He began his newspaper career in 1949 as editor of a small weekly at Portland, Pa., and later was managing editor of five small weeklies near Poughkeepsie, N.Y. He later was successively on the editorial staffs of the Atlanta City (N. J.) Press-Union; the Dayton (O.) Daily News, and the Cleveland, (O)) Plain-Dealer. He joined the Examiner in 1955 as a feature writer.

His appointment will bring Garety's staff to one assistant

Engle Gets 'Draft' For Re-Election

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Sen. Clair Engle's "draft" to seek re-election in 1964 was completed today. He received his third postcard.

Engle announced earlier this week he would seek re-election if "drafted by the Democratic Party" and observed he would consider three postcards sufficient.

"And I have two already," he said then.

The mailman today brought him a third — from California State Assembly Speaker Jesse Unruh.

"Dear Clair," Unruh wrote. "Consider this the third postcard in the draft Engle for re-election campaign. I'm sorry to be so late—I'd like to have been the first."

According to Republican speculation in California, Engle was to be asked to step aside to pave the way for Unruh to come to the Senate.

Young GOP Election Said Illegal

New officers of the Marin County Young Republicans, elected at the stormy annual meeting last month, "should forthwith be removed" because they were elected illegally, three members charged in a suit filed today in Marin Superior Court.

A hearing on the complaint is set for 2 p.m. next Monday before Judge Harold J. Haley, sitting in Marin Superior Court extra sessions.

The new officers, whom the suit seeks to remove, are headed by president Donald Black. They include Cliff Gerstner, vice president; Carole Smith, secretary; Harriett Ross Duby, assistant secretary; John Schmitz, treasurer, and directors William D. Keeler, Patrick Pollack, Connie Meuser, Rus-

Marching Feet Heard Throughout Land As 50-Mile Hikes Continue

By RICHARD CARBONEAU

Claims of new records in the Bay Area's 50-mile hiking craze today mingled with the sound of marching feet, announcements of new attempts, and the barking dogs of those who have gone before.

Blistered, bleeding feet and the chill of yesterday's rainstorm foiled four Terra Linda High School students who tried to walk to Mirabel on the Russian River. The four challenged "anybody" to cover the route in 20 hours or less, claiming it is a tough course.

Ron Nelson, 18, of 417 Greenfield Avenue, San Anselmo, made it as far as Forestville before accepting a ride to their resort cabin destination. He covered 43 miles, trotting at the last, in 18 hours.

David Roscoe, 17, of 665 Rosal Way and Mike Nehm, 17, of 804 Rincon Way, both Santa Venetia, covered 42 miles, reported Mrs. George Graham, who shepherded the group. Her son Randy, 18, of 631 Galerita Way, Santa Venetia, hiked as far as Penngrove, rode with a highway patrolman to Cotati, and then walked to Sebastopol.

"His feet were bleeding," said Mrs. Graham. Toward the last, the others were helping Randy, she added. He covered 26 miles.

"We didn't make it faster than I thought we would," commented Nehm.

The Bay Area record was claimed yesterday by Jim McNutt, 18, a San Carlos high school student and runner in last year's Dipsea race in Marin, who said he covered 50 miles of a roundabout route from San Carlos through Woodside to Stanford University and back in seven hours and 50 minutes.

William Ranney of Fairfax, member of a group from the Marin Athletic Club who will run and walk the route of the famed Redwood 400 to Point Reyes Station and back on Sat-

Trio Robs Cab Firm With Aid Of Fire

Two men and a woman, who set fire to a wastebasket to distract the dispatcher, last night looted the San Rafael Yellow Cab Co. office of $247.15, mostly in cash, according to San Rafael police.

Dispatcher Mary R. Milani of 110 San Rafael Avenue told officers that the trio entered the office to wait for a cab. When the wastebasket flared up, one of the men helped her put out the fire and the other man and woman left the office. After the fire, the third man left.

Shortly thereafter, Mrs. Milani noticed that a gray money bag containing cab receipts was gone.

Mrs. Milani described one of the men as a "beatnik" type with a beard.

Downpour Is Followed By Overcast And Fog

Sudden downpours that brought more than an inch and a half of rain to some areas of Marin County yesterday were followed today by overcast, some low fog, and here and there a patch of blue sky.

The Weather Burea said there might be some more fog tomorrow morning, but generally it will be fair.

The rain yesterday was not steady enough to cause serious flooding, but some slides came down on county roads yesterday.

Marion Avenue in Mill Valley was closed at 2 p.m. yesterday when a big slide came down in the 200 block. It remained closed today.

Beach Road in Belvedere, closed by the big storm two weeks ago, was closed again by a slide last night.

A soupy mud slide covered part of the southbound lane on the road south of Inverness last night.

Fog closed Marin County Airport most of this morning, and pilots landing and taking off at Hamilton Air Force Base had to use instruments.

Most rain was reported at Kent Lake, where 1.60 inches fell in the 24-hour period ending at 8 a.m. today.

San Rafael had 1.38 from the storm to noon today, giving a season total of 32.46.

Other totals from the storm were:

Ross, 1.59; Chevy Chase, 1.42; Alpine Lake, 1.4; Phoenix Lake, 1.3; Woodacre, 1.21; Lagunitas Lake, 1.2; Larkspur, Novato and Tamalpais Valley, 1:15; Mill Valley, Sausalito and Marinwood, 1.1 inch, and Bon Tempe Lake, .9.

Behr Says No State Loan Needed For Canal Dredging

County Supervisor Peter Behr told his colleagues today that dredging of a Saucelito Canal in Richardson Bay probably will be cared for through assessment district without recourse to state loan.

"We now don't anticipate trying for a loan if we are successful in forming a district," said Behr. He said interest on bonds sold by the district probably would not work out at much more than the rate asked by the state.

Cause of Behr's remarks was a letter from Lachman M. Richards, chairman of the State Division of Small Craft Harbors, suggesting that if a loan is still desired some new device be sought in view of adverse legal rulings on the possibility of the assessment district being its security.

Richards said that if something new is not produced, he "will be forced to recommend that the commission delete Marin County from their list of local agencies" desiring to obtain loans.

Behr indicated that such action will be alright with him and other working for creation of a district.

Mill Valleyan Hurt In Cable Car Accident

A Mill Valley woman suffered a leg fracture as nine passengers were injured by the abrupt stopping of a cable car at Washington and Mason streets in San Francisco yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. Florence Macfee, 55, of 134 Lovell Avenue, Mill Valley, was taken to Marin General Hospital from the scene by Marin Ambulance and remained under treatment today.

The eight others injured included six children. San Francisco police said the gripman, James W. Watts, reported the grip jammed in the cable slot, bringing the car to a jarring halt and unseating and scattering passengers.

WIRE NEWS BRIEFS From Everywhere

McAteer Out Of Mayor Race

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Democrat J. Eugene McAteer was out of the race for San Francisco mayor today, but he declined to support either of the two announced candidates.

McAteer, a state senator, announced in a Sacramento press conference yesterday that he felt he could best serve the city by remaining in Sacramento.

He said he would not announce "at this time" whom he would support this fall, but hinted that it might not be either of the two announced candidates, Rep. John F. Shelley or Supervisor Harold S. Dobbs.

Strike Asked Against S.P.

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — The chairman of the Southern Pacific unit of the Brotherhood of Railway Clerks has called for a strike against the railroad at "the earliest possible moment"—but national officers of the union continued efforts today to avert the walkout.

James Weaver, head of the S.P. unit, said yesterday he feels that further talks in the lengthy dispute over automation are "a waste of time." He called for a strike no later than Saturday.

Vaccine Testing

VACAVILLE (AP) — One hundred inmates of the California Medical Facility, screening center for the state prison system, will take part next week in research testing of a vaccine that may immunize against some respiratory ills.

The prisoners, volunteers who will receive modest payment, will be vaccinated with PPLO (for Pleura-Pneumonia-Like Organism).

Researchers hope the vaccine will stimulate sufficiently high antibody production to lead to further testing.

Monorail Proposed

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Three private firms propose to build the longest monorail in the world from San Francisco to Palo Alto—a distance of 30 miles.

The firms, Aerojet-General, Alweg Company and Haas and Hainie, said yesterday they hope to make a firm proposal to San Francisco and San Mateo counties in 30 days.

The firms said trains would operate at speeds of 85 miles an hour and would complement the San Francisco Bay Area Rapid Transit System, which is in the pre-construction stage.

Betancourt Tenure

CARACAS, Venezuela (AP)—President Romulo Betancourt began his fifth year in office today, the longest tenure of any freely elected Venezuelan chief of state.

Malaya Arms Buildup

KUALA LUMPUR, Malaya (AP)—Malaya announced a crash program today to build up its armed forces in the face of Indonesian threats to the projected Malaysia Federation.

Trouble In Sofia

Control In Iraq

BAGHDAD, Iraq (AP) — Iraq's new military regime reportedly holds effective control of the oil-rich country although pockets of Communist resistance undoubtedly remain.

Baghdad, the capital, appears quiet and restrained, in sharp contrast to heavy firing which shook the city Monday night when National Guardsmen were rooting out the Reds.

Aid For Education

BURLINGAME (AP) — California will receive the largest single allotment of federal aid to education should the program requested by President John F. Kennedy go through Congress, the California Teachers Assn. said today.

Basing its figures on U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare statistics, the teachers association said California would be alloted $55,691,104 out of a federal outlay of $831,390,000 for which specific state allotment formulas are spelled out.

Maharis Suspended

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Actor George Maharis has been suspended from his costarring role on the "Route 66" television show.

Producer Herbert B. Leonard gave no reason for the suspension but a spokesman for Lancer Productions said yesterday Maharis had been absent repeatedly because of illness.

Maharis, in New York, had no comment.

Religion In Russia

LOS ANGELES —Evangelist Billy Graham says a spiritual revival in the Soviet Union is disturbing Russian leaders.

Graham said yesterday that he could not speculate on whether such a revival would lead to an uprising against communism.

He said he plans an evangelistic trip to Asia next month.

Cold Weather Clings

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

More freezing weather chilled the South today from Texas to northern Florida as cold weather clung to most areas from the Rockies to New England.

Arctic air continued to spread south and eastward from the snow-covered northern Midwest and extended over most of the East and Gulf Coast regions. Temperatures of near freezing and lower were reported throughout the Gulf Coast except in extreme southern Texas and the Florida peninsula.

The mercury dropped to 30 above in Tallahassee, in northern Florida, and to the low 50s in extreme southern Florida. Readings were in the teens in Tennessee, the mountain areas of North Carolina and the northern fringes of Alabama and Georgia. The chilly 21 in Atlanta compared to 28 in Anchorage, Alaska.

Women Marines

Marine Corps Commandant, Gen. David M. Shoup, congratulated the women "on behalf of all male Marines," hailed their two decades of service and recalled the work also of the Marinettes of World War I and the women Marine reservists of World War II.

The present commander of the women marines is Col. Margaret Monroe Henderson, a native of Cameron, Tex., who was appointed to the post in 1959. A former secondary school teacher, she joined the Marines in 1943.

Artist, Son Hurt

WRIGHTWOOD (UPI)—A Malibu cartoonist and his son were injured and about 50 persons were stranded temporarily yesterday in a ski chair lift mishap on Holiday Hill.

His son, Stephen, 13, was treated for a sprained ankle and released. He and his father tumbled 20 feet from the chair lift.

Relief For Growers

SACRAMENTO (AP)—Imperial Valley lettuce growers, who say the January cold spell cost them three million dollars, got some relief yesterday.

Acting Gov. Glenn M. Anderson signed a bill allowing them to sell lettuce smaller than a state marketing order would have required.

Air Plane Carrying 43 Crashes In Florida

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Amphibious vehicles chugged through swampy wilderness today toward the broken wreck of an airliner that crashed with 43 persons aboard deep in south Florida's Everglades.

The craft lost radio contact with Miami International Airport traffic control seven minutes after it took off in a rain squall at 1:35 p.m. Six and one-half hours elapsed before the fireswept wreck was sighted, 43 miles southwest of Miami, in a search that covered the southeast.

Coast Guardsmen, who spotted the Boeing 720-B from a helicopter landed and found no indication that any of the 35 passengers and eight crew members had survived.

"It lay smack in the middle of a swamp. The fuselage was all busted up and consumed by fire," the copter crew said.

Glades fishermen said they saw a fire ball in the sky.

Coast Guard Lt. Cmdrs. James Dillon and W. C. Wallace, who spied the wreck near darkness, landed gingerly on boggy ground and explored the scene.

"All around us were little pieces of wreckage and a lot of luggage," Lillian said. "Wallace said it looked as if all the bodies were intact. All he had was a flashlight and he could not see too much."

The search was intensified in the Everglades west of Miami when sport fishermen scattered through the area began reporting they saw fire in the sky.

"Suddenly there was a ball of fire within a cloud, and a rain of fire descended all the way to the rim of mangrove trees on our horizon," Swann said. He got word to a park ranger who relayed it to Coast Guard search headquarters.

Among the passengers were four members of an Illinois family of five which usually vacations together. Those aboard were Mr. andMrs. Walter Orzula Ofcicero, their daughter, Jerilyn, 20, and son, Walter Jr., 18. Another daughter, Joyce, was with her husband at Fort Riley, Kan.

Stewardess Connie Blank expected to change planes in Chicago and fly on another jet to Spokane, Wash., for a brief visit with her mother, Inez Blank. She had planned to wed in Spokane in August.

Another listed aboard was Joseph E. Cain, board chairman of Mallory Co., Indianapolis electronics manufacturer and reported owner of one million dollars worth of his firm's stock.

Discovery of the broken wreck in the Everglades confirmed the worst fears of passengers' friends and relatives who had waited at Chicago's O'Hare International Airport for the plane—first 15 minutes late in takeoff, then listed as unreported, then as overdue.

KENNEDY BEHIND EFFORT TO ENLARGE FINANCE UNIT

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP) — President John F. Kennedy has put his weight behind an effort to enlarge the Senate's key Finance Committee to get more elbow room there for his tax bill and other major legislation.

In his first intervention in such Senate matters, the president has sent White House aides to Capitol Hill to lobby for the addition of two seats to the 17-member committee headed by Sen. Harry F. Byrd (D-Va.). Byrd is opposing this proposal.

The move—which presidential aides have tried to keep under cover—parallels Kennedy's earlier successful public fight to retain the traffic-directing House Rules Committee at the membership level of 15 calculated to open the road for action on his program.

The first test vote on enlarging the Finance Committee to 19 will come at a closed meeting tomorrow of the Senate Democratic Steering Committee. This group is headed by Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana.

The outcome may depend on whether members vote by secret ballot. The administration holds a nominal 8-7 margin over seven Southern conservatives who could be expected to resist the placement of additional liberal party members on a committee previously dominated by a conservative Republican-Democratic coalition.

If the steering group should vote to expand the Finance Committee, Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois has promised to fight the action in the Senate. Presumably he would have almost solid Republican support, plus that of many conservative Democrats.

Dirksen is slated to fill a Republican vacancy on the Finance group. His opposition to enlargement of the committee may be somewhat compromised by his efforts to get the Senate Appropriations Committee expanded so that Sen. Jacob K. Javits (R-N.Y.) will not lose his seat on that important group.

The president's action in stepping into the controversy was regarded in some quarters as a move to placate liberal Democrats who complained bitterly that he did not lift a hand for them in their vain effort to make it easier for the Senate to cut off filibusters

When that matter was before the Senate, Mansfield said that it was the Senate's business alone and Kennedy would take no part in it.

More compelling than aid to the liberals apparently is White House anxiety over the fate of the presidential program for tax cuts accompanied by structural changes in the revenue laws.

Byrd has made it clear he is opposed to cutting taxes unless expenditures are reduced. High administration officials have said comparable reductions in outlays would nullify the economic effects of a tax cut.

If the president's men win their fight for enlargement of the committee, there will be a scramble for three Democratic places on it.

At least six Democrats have been mentioned in this connection, not all of them liberals. They include Sens. William Proxmire of Wisconsin, Frank J. Lausche and Stephen M. Young of Ohio, Abraham A. Ribicoff of Connecticut, Edward V. Long of Missouri and J. Howard Edmonson of Oklahoma.

'IT'S PART OF THE UNION'

Lincoln's Great-Granddaughter Is Against Forcing Integration

MANCHESTER, Vt. (UPI) — Abraham Lincoln's great-granddaughter says she disagrees with Atty. Gen. Robert Kennedy "in forcing integration on the South."

Miss Mary Lincoln Beckwith, 64, said yesterday — the 154th anniversary of Lincoln's birth — that she was concerned about "the aggression of the federal government in forcing integration on the South.

"We're southerners, but I don't think of the South as a separate culture. It's part of the Union," she said.

Miss Beckwith has lived more than 50 years at Hildene, a 1,000-acre dairy farm built by her grandfather Robert Todd Lincoln. Her family had lived in Kentucky and South Carolina.

"I think we are moving along the right lines," she said, "but the federal government is a little too aggressive.

"I realize that the process of integration must seem to be taking a very long time to some people.

"But I think it may take even more time than it has. It's like nature which takes an awful long time in its evolution.

"This is a good time to reflect, and I think Abe Lincoln would do a lot of reflecting himself if he were here," she said.

Miss Beckwith said she believed the segregation problem arose because "people and animals just don't like strangers. And when strangers are suddenly thrown together, people and animals alike bristle."

Disarmament Negotiator Starts Private Talk With Neutral Aides

GENEVA (AP) — President John F. Kennedy's chief disarmament negotiator began a series of private talks with neutral delegates at the 17-nation disarmament conference today in an attempt to bring the main focus of the talks back to a ban on nuclear weapon tests.

U.S. delegate William C. Foster's first meeting was with Abdel Fattah Hassan of the United Arab Republic. He also scheduled talks with the Swedish and Nigerian delegations and with the delegates from Britain, Italy and Canada.

Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Vasily V. Kuznetsov surprised the delegates Tuesday with a proposal for a treaty banning the deployment of nuclear weapon systems in foreign lands and seas.

The proposal, unacceptable to the Western powers, overshadowed the test ban issue as the conference resumed after a two-month recess. Western delegates said Kuznetsov's proposal was a maneuver designed to draw attention away from Soviet stalling tactics in the test ban negotiations.

One Western official speculated that the proposal might have been designed to impress the Chinese Communists—who are not represented here — with the Soviet Union's intransigence. The official said Kuznetsov himself must have been fully aware that the West was certain to reject the proposal.

The next session of the conference is scheduled for tomorrow.

HOLIDAY, MATINEE, RAIN, AND WOW!

Record crowd of movie goers jammed sidewalk most of yesterday to get into the Rafael Theater at 1118 Fourth Street, San Rafael, as three day-time and two night-time showings of Walt Disney's "Son of Flubber" were presented on Lincoln's Birthday. Manager Alfred T. Goodwin figures a total of 4,200 saw the film yesterday. The theater has a seating capacity for 1,000 and many had to wait hours for a seat. Police were needed at noon to keep traffic moving as rain began drenching the crowd.

tion by MacLaury asking for the appointment of a citizens committee to study whether an election should be held in May or June also died for lack of a second.

Ring then proposed a citizens committee be appointed to report in July but other trustees asked more time to consider.

The board adjourned until tonight at 8 o'clock at the Reed School to hold a work session on the budget itself, originally scheduled for last night. Pino will present a tentative expenditure budget of $870,759 or $104,552 over last year.

sell Teasdale and Walter McGovern.

The officers were named at the annual meeting at Bermuda Palms on Jan. 15, on the eve of the First District congressional election. The members voted 144 to 96 against an open election and named a compromise slate headed by Black.

The most vocal opponent that night was McGovern, a potential candidate for president. Outgoing President Charles Michals said the compromise slate was selected by a nominating committee to please all fractions — liberals, moderates and conservatives among the Young Republicans.

The suit contends that the slate was elected illegally because nominations were not permitted from the floor as required by law.

The complaint does not specifically mention the state convention in Fresno which the officers are scheduled to attend this weekend. However, it charges that the new officers "have no right to assume or discharge the duties of their offices" and should be removed at once.

Collie Dog Falls Down Elevator Shaft, Rescued

A collie dog, which fell into an elevator shaft of a new apartment under construction in Tamalpais Valley, was rescued today by sheriff's deputies and taken to Marin County Humane Society shelter.

Deputy Sheriff Boyd Burnham said the dog was howling inside a partially built apartment house at Shoreline Highway and Pinehill Road about 2:30 a.m. It had a cut on its head and seemed to have trouble with its hind legs.

Officials at the Humane Society said an unidentified woman telephoned this morning to say she is the owner of the dog and would pick up the pet later today.

Mrs. E. Joan Eastman of 330 Springside Way in Tamalpais Valley heard the dog howling and called the sheriff.

Freight Van Rolls Out Of Control

An unattended freight van rolled out of control and smashed into Duffy Brothers Garage at Third and C Street in San Rafael just before noon today.

The heavy truck buckled one wall of the garage, but fortunately no one was hurt.

"It's a good thing no one was in the way, because the big rig would have smashed anything in its way," said Officer Thomas Cheetham.

The Associated Freight Lines' truck, driven by Jerome Gladwin, 50, of San Francisco had pulled into the McPhail's Inc. driveway across the street for deliveries. While the driver was inside, the truck's brakes apparently failed. Officer Cheetham said the emergency brakes had been set.

Sausalito Planners

The Sausalito Planning Commission will have on its agenda at its 8 p.m. meeting today a request for a use permit and variance from parking requirements from Heath Land Co. to build a 114-unit apartment house in Marin-ship with 50 boat berths.

Master Plan On Sewers Is Backed

Endorsement of a Marin County master plan on sewers was given by county supervisors today after hearing a letter from the chairman of the Regional Water Pollution Control Board criticizing the county for failure to deal with sewage problems on an overall basis.

All members agreed as to merits of the idea. It was decided to refer the letter to the county planning commission as preliminary to providing for a study at budget time next summer.

Grant Burton, chairman of the regional board, wrote that lack of a Marin plan has caused many present problems, with more in the making.

Absence of such a scheme, said Burton, "is becoming more apparent as we continue to be approached by various subdivision developers who want to build small sewage treatment plants to serve their particular needs without any relation to the needs of the surrounding territory.

"The developer, it would seem to us, is being left to solve the sewage problem as best he can without any idea of how his final product will fit into the future development of the area."

Formosa Struck By Severe Quake

It was the worst in 11 years.

Thousands of persons fled in terror from this capital to the countryside.

Police said the three killed were highway workers trapped by a rock avalanche near Taichung in central Formosa.

HAVEN of BEAUTY
in the heart of Marin

THOSE WHO LOVE OUR COUNTY find Mount Tamalpais Cemetery a perfect expression of Marin beauty ... Rolling hills, native shrubs and trees make this a lovely place of final rest. Here, too, a large endowment care fund assures maintenance in the years ahead. Like other Marinites, you may wish to make final arrangements here before need. May we invite you to visit us soon?

would divulge only to J. Edgar Hoover."

The Washington Star quoted him further as saying he had "evidence" that would result in impeachment of President John F. Kennedy and the whole Cabinet.

The FBI identified the license plates on the car, a 1956 Oldsmobile, as having been issued to Nathan Wiskowsky, a businessman connected with a Phoenix, Ariz., department store.

In Phoenix, Mrs. Nathan Wise said, "I know that's my husband. He's sick. He needs help."

She said the family's name formerly was Wiskowsky.

The man, after being routed from beneath the car by a barrage of seven or eight tear gas pellets, was whisked off to police headquarters for questioning.

Then bomb disposal experts, who had been called in from nearby Ft. Myer, Va., checked over the devices and found them harmless.

The cans were reported empty, and a package the man had been clutching beneath the car turned out to be a small valise stuffed with old Arizona newspapers.

HIKE

urday, was impressed by McNutt's time.

"If he said he did it, I'll believe him," said Ranney. "He's a very good runner." Ranney said the Marin club had four runners ahead of McNutt last year in the Dipsea, however.

Ranney said the three airmen from Hamilton who claimed a 50-mile hike to Cotati and back in eight hours 18 minutes had to be running. Anyone who covers 50 miles in 12 hours or less at a walk, said Ranney, has to have "long legs, a long stride and no rest."

PLAN HIKE

Four Marin men, all in their 20s, will hike the Redwood High School group's route this weekend, leaving at 9 p.m. Saturday because they will "feel better at night than in the daytime." They are Gary Dykstra, 25, of 305 Prospect Drive, San Rafael, cashier in a San Francisco brokerage house; Michael Dufficy, 24, of 10 Hillside Avenue, Kentfield, a Hastings College of Law student; Douglas Emerson, 25, of 93 Bolinas Avenue, Ross, a San Francisco carpet salesman, and Tom Mack, 24, of 212 Hillside Drive, Fairfax, salesman for a meat firm.

The group will take a canteen of water apiece and a small bottle of whisky for medicinal purposes. They will try to cover the route in less than 16 hours.

SATURDAY PLAN

Ranney said a group of friends, mostly high school students, will set out Saturday at the same time as the Marin Athletic Club team just to walk the 50 miles. He said about 15 or 20 have indicated they will go, "not to try for any records, but just to see if they can do it." He said Fred Hines, physical education instructor at San Rafael High School and a Dipsea runner last year, will go along as adviser and coach.

At Redwood High School, where the largest mass response to President John F. Kennedy's hiking challenge was spawned, most of the hikers were in school but a little tired, according to James Troppmann, student body president, who initiated the hike.

Redwood will hold a "Blister Ball" Saturday night to celebrate the feat, in which 97 hikers finished. Marines are invited to attend.

ONE OF BEST

Troppmann called the hike "one of the best things we ever had in the school. The kids really had a blast despite the hardships."

Elsewhere in the Bay Area, 11 Stanford students, some attired in suits and bowlers and reading classic philosophy, hiked through a stiff rain from San Jose to San Francisco's Fairmont Hotel on Nob Hill. Eighteen others dropped out.

Three Milpitas firemen set out for Morgan Hill and back, hoping to make it in 12 hours.

Thirty Santa Clara University students announced they will try to outdo the Stanford group by walking from Santa Clara to San Francisco and back to Stanford tonight. Four San Jose high school boys, all varsity track men, finished a 50-mile hike in 10 hours and 59 minutes. A 17-year-old Campbell high school girl joined her 15-year-old brother and another youth in a 47-mile hike, claiming a time of eight hours and 45 minutes.

Five Cupertino boys walked from San Jose to Boulder Creek before they were caught in a thunderstorm and had to give up. Their tennis shoes shrank.

OBITUARIES

Fred E. Stubbe Dies At 64

Fred E. Stubbe, a correctional officer at San Quentin Prison for 35 years, died yesterday in a local hospital after a short illness. He was 64.

Stubbe was a lifetime resident of Marin, born and reared near Black Point. He and his wife, Mary E., who is a registered nurse, resided in San Quentin Village during his many years of employment at the prison.

Besides his wife, Stubbe leaves a daughter, Mrs. Sue Fielder of Santa Venetia, and two brothers, William J. Stubbe of Marysville and Martin L. Stubbe of Petaluma.

He was a member of Marin Lodge 191, Free and Accepted Masons; Marin Pyramid 31, Sciots; Marin Rod and Gun Club; California State Employees Assn. Chapter 21; San Quentin Employees Mutual Benefit Assn., and the First Presbyterian Church of San Rafael.

Masonic funeral services will be conducted by Marin Lodge 191 at 11 a.m. Friday at Harry M. Williams Mortuary, San Rafael. Burial will be in Mount Tamalpais Cemetery.

GERTRUDE CARSON

Private burial was held today in Palo Alto for Gertrude Worrall Carson, 64, of Stinson Beach, who died Sunday in a Palo Alto hospital following a long illness.

Mrs. Carson, who had lived at 1 Laurel Avenue in Stinson Beach until about six months ago, was a Marin resident for about 16 years, some 14 of which she worked in the Stinson Beach post office. The Worrall family has maintained a home there for about 40 years.

Mrs. Carson was born in Oakland. She is survived by her mother, Mrs. Margaret Worrall, who is now in a rest home in Tiburon, and a sister, Mrs. Barbara Hediger of Palo Alto.

Memorial services will be held later in Stinson Beach, reported Tinney Funeral Chapel of Palo Alto.

MRS. SICKELS

Mehetable Jane Sickels, who spent her winters in Marin County for the past 25 years, died in a local hospital yesterday after a long illness.

She lived with a daughter, Mrs. Thomas E. Day, at 4575 Paradise Drive, Tiburon, in the winter and at Phillips, El Dorado County, in the summer.

The community of Phillips was started by her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. D. Phillips, who founded a resort there in 1859. The resort was on the stage coach road from Sacramento to Reno and the stop was known at Phillips Station.

Mrs. Sickels was born in Glenbrook, Nev. Her husband, William Sickels, a merchant in Reno, died several years ago.

For many years Mrs. Sickels worked with her half-sister, Mrs. Alice E. Lyon of Phillips, operating the resort, now known at the Lyon and Sickels Resort.

Mrs. Sickels is also survived by another daughter, Elinor N. Sickels of Tiburon.

Funeral services will be at 2 p.m. tomorrow at Harry M. Williams Mortuary, San Rafael. Contributions to the Heart Assn. are preferred by the family.

MRS. TRAVIS

Funeral services were held yesterday for Mrs. E. Pearl Travis, 65, of Forestville, Sonoma County, a sister of Mrs. Ruby Valencia of Kentfield.

Mrs. Travis, wife of Burton Travis, longtime former member of the Analy Union High School District board of trustees, died Sunday. She was a native of Covelo, Mendocino County.

Other survivors include a son, Russel B. Travis of Miami, Fla.; a daughter, Mrs. Jacqueline Kurtz of Berkeley; another sister, Mrs. Harvey Russell of Lodi; a brother, Clause Russell of Walnut Grove, and seven grandchildren.

Services were handled by O'Leary Funeral Home, Sebastopol. Inurnment was at Chapel of the Chimes, Santa Rosa.

Funeral services were held yesterday for Walter J. Pybon, former Sleepy Hollow resident and retired assistant vice president of American Trust Co. in San Francisco.

Pybon, 70, died Sunday in a San Leandro hospital after a long illness. Masonic funeral services were held in Castro Valley. Burial was in Golden Gate National Cemetery.

Pybon, a native of Lincoln, Placer County, was a member and past master of Excelsior Lodge 166, Free and Accepted Masons, in San Francisco. After retiring from American Trust Co. in 1951, he opened a real estate office on B Street in San Rafael. He was later associated with the Northwestern Title Co.

Pybon lived for 10 years at 1400 Butterfield Road, moving to Castro Valley in 1957. He was a member of the Marin Sheriff's Posse.

He is survived by his wife, Helen; a daughter, Mrs. Virginia H. Thomas of Fremont, and three grandchildren.

Webb, Rogers Drug Store In San Rafael Is Purchased

One of San Rafael's oldest retail stores, Webb and Rogers Drugs at Fourth and B streets, has been sold, it was announced today.

The drug store was opened in 1909 on Fourth Street midway between A and B streets by two young Berkeley pharmacists, Christopher C. Webb and Ralph H. Rogers. It was moved to its present corner location in the early 1930s when the Albert Building was erected, becoming one of the building's first tenants.

Webb later sold his interest to Rogers. Shortly after Rogers' death in 1946, the store was taken over by Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Nygren of 74 Rafael Drive, San Rafael, who have operated it since then. Mrs. Rogers, still living in San Rafael, has retained a partial interest in the firm.

The new owner, Allan Hanson of Santa Rosa, has purchased the entire business and will continue it under the same name. Hanson has recently been a pharmacist at the Sotoyome Pharmacy in Santa Rosa. He received his degree in pharmacy from Oregon State University in 1957.

Mrs. Nygren said she and her husband are retiring but will continue to live in San Rafael. They will remain at the drugstore until Hanson has had time to become familiar with its operation.

Mill Valley Lieutenant In Training Exercise

Army Second Lt. Dan A. Conner of Mill Valley recently participated with other members of the 8th Infantry Division in Exercise Sabre Knot in Germany.

Lieutenant Conner is mortar platoon section leader in Combat Support Company of the 504th Infantry in Mainz. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Karl Conner of 11 Reed Street.

Montgomery Ward Aides Switch Jobs

Managers of Montgomery Ward Co. stores played musical jobs today, the former Corte Madera manager taking over as manager of the Santa Rosa store and the former Santa Rosa manager starting as manager in Corte Madera.

Robert C. Batty of Ross began as Santa Rosa manager yesterday, with manager Harry Lilly, 39, showing him the ropes.

Lilly took over as manager of the firm's store in the Corte Madera Center today, with operations manager Carl Munzig and merchandise manager Phil Pitney acquainting him with the store.

Batty told the Independent-Journal: "My wife and I have always liked the Santa Rosa area and Lilly likes Corte Madera. The company tries to rotate its personnel after inventory."

Lilly said this was his 20th job change in 22 years service with the company. He previously served in the Oakland regional office for five years. For two and one-half years before that he served in the northwest district office before it moved from Walla Walla, Wash., to Portland, Ore., serving stores in Washington, Oregon, Idaho, Utah and Montana.

Lilly, unmarried, had been Santa Rosa manager about two and one-half years.

Batty, a veteran of 29 years with the firm, had been Corte Madera manager since March, 1960. Before then he had been manager since 1948 of the firm's store in San Rafael.

Lilly plans to move to Marin.

E STREET SCHOOL TO BE USED AGAIN

E Street School will have to be put back to use for from five to seven classes next fall to avoid double sessions until the Glenwood School is completed, Supt. Bert C. Corona told the San Rafael Board of Education last night.

To complicate matters, the E Street property must be sold to pay for the Glenwood building—and even then, the elementary school district may find itself about $100,000 short for the new building.

Board member Rex T. Silvernale proposed a solution: Sell the E Street property, as soon as the title is cleared, for delivery at year's end when it is expected the Glenwood School will be ready.

C. Paul Bettini, acting chairman in the absence of board president Roderick T. Martinelli, urged that the superintendent's staff immediately work out conditions of sale, calling for partial payment when the sale is made and the remainder when the property is turned over.

"Do it as if we were going to sell E Street tomorrow," put in board member John M. Bagshaw.

The board acted to speed things on disposal of the E Street School by adopting a resolution transferring title to a triangular portion of the property to the City of San Rafael, who will use it for extension of Third Street. The city council has yet to adopt a reciprocal resolution transferring a piece of city-owned property to the elementary school district in exchange.

The board also authorized Superintendent Corona to have appraisers Edward P. Morphy and Robert Miller bring their appraisers of E Street School up to date in preparation for sale.

The problem of class size and resultant transfer of pupils out of their home areas brought the board a bitter denunciation from Conrad Abbott, who said he lives within three blocks of Coleman School but his 9-year-old son must take a bus to Hartzell School in Los Ranchitos.

Abbott recently took his son out of the 3-R School and attempted to enroll him at Coleman. Because both fourth grade classes there were at the district limit of 35, the boy goes to Hartzell by bus.

"I don't think the thing is being run properly," declared Abbott. "This is ignorant."

Bettini said the district would not depart from its policy of limiting class size to 35. Bagshaw suggested the board has many problems and invited Abbott to attend its meetings.

"Next time I'll come with my attorney," retorted Abbott.

The San Rafael Board Of Education Also:

1. Received a letter from Robert H. Ho of 674 Idylberry Road, Lucas Valley, urging that Mandarin Chinese be offered in high school. Ho pointed out that the Carnegie Foundation had offered to pay for a teacher, and "the Carnegie Foundation seldom sponsor an educational program which is not best for over-all system."
2. Received a letter from Daryl A. Hopkins, director of special education for county schools, reporting 48 children from the San Rafael Elementary District are now in county-operated special classes, and suggesting the district should provide classrooms.
3. Approved hiring Mrs. Barbara M. Blumberg as teacher of U.S. history and English at San Rafael High School and accepted the resignation of Grace Crotts, art teacher at the same school, effective with close of the school year.
4. Granted Mrs. Eve Geiger, elementary school curriculum coordinator, permission to teach a class in reading for teachers in Windsor on Thursday evenings during spring semester.
5. Approved hiring William H. Costello as substitute janitor and Virginia Gilman as hourly bus driver, and accepted resignations of John P. Christensen, janitor, and Irene Prince, clerk.
6. Accepted a high school curriculum list with no new courses included, on being told by Corona each new course proposed for next school year would be presented individually.
7. Authorized Corona to go ahead on a plan for evaluating the "block teaching" program at Terra Linda High School.
8. Adopted a resolution urging continuance of federal laws which provide federal funds for school districts near military facilities, and directed that a copy be sent to Rep. Donald H. Clausen.
9. Rejected a claim of Marie S. Robinson for $50,000 for injuries allegedly suffered in a fall down a schoolhouse stairway.
10. Authorized renewal of the lease of the San Quentin School building from the state at $1 per year. Silvernale suggested study of the possibility of transporting some pupils from other areas by bus to San Quentin School, which has very small classes.
11. Accepted the low bid of Cyclone Fence Co., $3,314, for fencing at Terra Linda High School.

2 Plays Set At Dominican College

"Cry the Beloved Country" and "An Episode of Sparrows" will be presented by the Bishop's Company, a national touring group, at Dominican College Saturday and Sunday.

"Cry the Beloved Country," written by Alan Paton while he was a resident of Fairfax, tells the story of racial prejudice in South Africa. "An Episode of Sparrows," by Rumor Godden, is of two young urchins and their efforts to dispel cynicism in the aftermath of World War II.

Performances will begin at 8:15 p.m. Saturday and 2:15 p.m. Sunday in Angelico Hall.

School Organization Meeting Set Feb. 20

The Marin County Augmented Committee on School District Organization for the Tamalpais Union High School District will meet Feb. 20 at 8 p.m. at the Edna Maguire School, 80 Lomita Drive, Mill Valley, to hear alternate proposals for unification of the district.

The committee rejected at its Jan. 9 meeting the scheme it adopted in December for unifying the district. Seven other proposals are to be presented Feb. 20.

Completes Training

UNIFICATION STUDY DUE DIXIE BOARD

Proposals by a management consultant firm to study district unification will be heard tonight by the Dixie School District board.

The proposed unification study by Booz, Allen and Hamilton would include Dixie, Novato Unified, San Jose Elementary and San Rafael High School and Elementary school districts.

Dixie Supt. Dennie B. Willis said Glenn Fishback of the management firm will outline the plans for the suggested study. The board will meet at 8 p.m. in the district office at 4775 Redwood Highway.

Trustees will also begin a study of fiscal 1963 budget proposals.

Board Won't Start Now With Study

The San Rafael Board of Education last night decided to wait for Dixie before committing itself on a proposed redistricting study.

Glenn Fishback of Booz, Allen and Hamilton, management consultants, presented his firm's proposal for a study of the present structure of San Rafael's two school districts plus Dixie and San Jose Elementary School Districts and Novato Unified School District, and for possible redistricting and unification. Cost was estimated at $10,000 to $12,000, to be shared by the five districts on an enrollment basis.

Board member Rex T. Silvernale asked whether all the other districts involved had heard the presentation.

Fishback said "No, only Novato." The Novato board has agreed to participate if the other districts do.

Board member John M. Bagshaw said he felt action should be delayed until after San Rafael election of April 8, in which three board members will be chosen. "I personally feel we have no real need for a study of this type," he said.

Silvernale indicated he favored redistricting but said he wants to be sure the Dixie Board is willing before committing San Rafael. He pointed out the Dixie board refused last year to adopt a resolution favoring unification of Dixie and San Rafael districts, which was voted by the San Rafael board.

Board member Bella H. Aaron said she agreed with Bagshaw.

Acting chairman C. Paul Bettini said he favored the study but "possibly this should be withheld until you have a new board here."

Silvernale said it should be withheld anyway until Dixie acts, to which everyone agreed. The Dixie board is to hear the presentation tonight.

Drake Art Club Slates Contest

Sir Francis Drake High School's Art Club will sponsor an art contest from Feb. 25 to March 15. Winning entries will be displayed in the school's library window.

The contest, which will be judged by a panel of teachers, is open to all students at Drake. Project entries may be in crafts (ceramics, jewelry, leather, etc.), sculpture, painting, drawings collage, or photography. Entries close Feb. 24.

Meetings Called On Flood Hazards

Further meetings with the city engineering staff to seek safety measures against flood hazards at Davidson School were called for last night by the San Rafael Board of Education.

If a solution can be worked out acceptable to both school district and city, the school district is willing to pay half the cost, the board told Supt. Bert C. Corona. He was advised to "have our engineers meet with the city's." (As the school district has no engineers of its own—although as a city department, it might be considered to share the city's engineers — Corona said afterward he supposed he must hire one for the job.)

Lewis G. McCall, superintendent of buildings and grounds for the schools, told why he had rejected a proposal by City Public Works Director Norris Rawles for a section of pipe in a presently open ditch —which would have left the dith still open on the Davidson School property. A boy drowned there last month.

McCall presented his own plan for fencing the ditch and putting in sidewalk and bulkheading on Lovell Street (not Jordan Street as incorrectly reported in yesterday's Independent-Journal). He estimated the cost at $1,350. He said the fence would be over half on city property and he felt the city should pay half.

The board agreed, but said details should be worked out by engineers.

Door Open For Talks On Teachers' Salary

The door was opened for discussion of a pay raise for San Rafael teachers last night after the co-chairman of the teachers' salary committee resigned because he said he had failed.

J. F. Trentacoste, San Rafael High School teacher, read his letter of resignation to the board of education. In it he said the board's refusal to act on a request for reduction in the number of steps in the salary scale, despite some urging by citizen committees, caused him to "have little hope for any solid achievement in the next two years."

That was at the start of the meeting.

Near its end, board member Rex T. Silvernale said he was worried by Trentacoste's communication.

"Possibly this board as it exists today is the board to take action," he said. "I do not think we should wait until after the April election." Board member Bella H. Aaron agreed.

Silvernale invited the teacher salary committee to bring in "a reasonable proposal" within a month.

Acting chairman C. Paul Bettini put in, "I have thought for some time that 16 steps in the salary schedule is too many."

San Rafael Board Is Against Study Of High School Space

San Rafael High School may have to keep on growing like Topsy.

The San Rafael Board of Education was decidedly cool last night to a presentation by Walter C. Jacobs, president of Space Utilization Analysts, Inc., of Los Angeles, who proposed a $10,000 study of the use of space in the 40-year-old building and its more recent additions.

Jacobs said his firm had made such a study of Los Angeles high schools and found space in a typical one that could accommodate 1,560 students was handling only 1,126. He said when principals' figures showed classrooms 80 per cent filled, they proved to be actually at less than 70 per cent of capacity.

Unimpressed, board member John M. Bagshaw commented that architects Gromme and Priestley were authorized in November to proceed with a study of San Rafael High.

Supt. Bert C. Corona said the firm had completed an "as is" layout of the school but lacked the facilities to make such a study as proposed by Jacobs.

"I do not feel it would be of value in our district," said board member Bella H. Aaron. "I feel there is no one more qualified to determine our needs than the administration and staff."

THAT SUDS IN FOUNTAIN IS NOT BEER

It is not beer.

That is the discouraging word from San Anselmo, where the city fountain at Red Hill Avenue and Sir Francis Drake Boulevard was high with foam today.

The explanation is that someone threw some detergent into the fountain soon after it was dedicated last summer. Normally the foam is not noticeable, but rain raises the level and stirs up the suds.

If you still think it is beer, taste it.

Manufacturing Business Opens

W. E. Joost Co., a new manufacturing business headed by William E. Joost, 34 Kinross Drive, Loch Lomond, has been opened at 25 Duffy Place, San Rafael.

Formerly sales manager for a San Francisco wholesale plumbing supply firm, Joost said he will concentrate on manufacturing a prefabricated plumbing vanity. The vanity will be in one standard size but offer a choice of marble, formica or terrazzo tops and supplied with or without cabinet, finished or unfinished, and various types of trim. The product will be sold through established wholesale plumbing supply firms in Northern California.

Joost said that before placing the vanity on the market he will accumulate an inventory of about 200 units.

Find Less Wrong, Teachers Urged

PITTSBURGH (AP) — High school English teachers who painstakingly mark every mistake on a theme are doing their students more harm than good, an expert said today.

Paul B. Diederich, director of research in English for the Educational Testing Service, said the most common effect of such correcting is that "most students learn to hate and fear writing."

"So far as they can see," he added in an address prepared for a national convention of high school principals, "they have never done anything on paper that anybody thought was any good."

The students' greatest need, he said, is help and encouragement to do better.

Diederich is in charge of a program to encourage use of qualified housewives as theme readers, working under close supervision.

The practice is now firmly established in almost every state, he said. Most of the housewives, who majored in English in college, earn about $80 a month for an average of two hours work per school day at home.

Diederich said he tells these housewife-readers: "Your first duty is to find at least one thing, and preferably two or three things, that the student has done well, or better than before.

"Then, if you must, find one thing, and preferably not more than one thing, that he should try to improve in his next paper."

Diederich said the need to use housewives as theme readers is a simple case of arithmetic — while the number of high school students has been zooming, the percentage of teachers graduating with a major in English has been steadily declining.

Catholic High Artists' Work Is Being Shown

Marin Catholic High School is one of seven Bay Area Catholic high schools participating in a program of traveling art exhibits.

Portfolios of 10 student works from each high school are exhibited for a week at a time at other schools.

Catholic High Speech Events

Donald Hemovich placed third in competition with other Northern California speakers in the University of San Francisco Invitational Debate Tournament.

A team from Marin Catholic competed at St. Mary's High School in Berkeley. Speakers were Russ Taylor, Bob Jeffry, Clare Bodoracco, Donald Hemovich, John Faville, George Fedoroff, Lydia Haran, Paula Mohr and Charles Clay.

Marin Lawmakers Introduce 8 Bills To Legislature

I-J Special Report

SACRAMENTO — Increased salaries for the Marin County Board of Supervisors, requirement that water districts give other government agencies an opportunity to purchase surplus lands before sale to private interests, and an extension of leases for residents of the Steep Ravine area of Mount Tamalpais were among bills tossed into the legislature yesterday by Marin representatives.

Assemblyman William T. Bagley introduced five feasures in the Assembly. Sen. John F. McCarthy handed three across the Senate desk.

Bagley's bills would:

1. Increase the maximum limit of small claims court from $200 to $500. Bagley pointed out the bill would not give the lower court exclusive jurisdiction so that a person could sue for between $200 and $500 in a higher court.

2. Require the county board of supervisors to comment on findings and recommendations of a county grand jury within 30 days after receipt of its report, rather than within 30 days after the formation of the next grand jury.

3. Require the grand jury to examine, on a sample basis, affidavits filed to support claims of veterans for property tax exemptions, to inquire in the sufficiency and veracity of the claims and to report on them.

4. Require municipal water districts to offer any surplus real property to the state, county or contiguous cities before offering it for sale to offers. This and the two previous bill were introduced at the request of the Marin County Grand Jury.

5. Increase the salary of Marin County supervisors from $500 to $800 per month, although no supervisor may receive the raise during his current term of office.

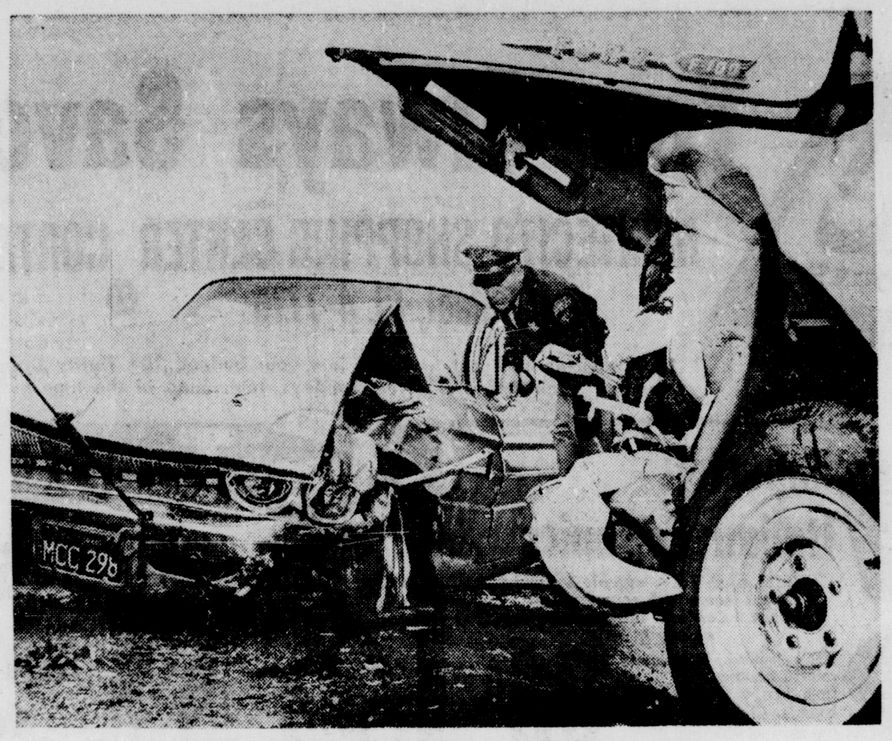

Two of McCarthy's three bills dealt with workmen's compensation laws.

The first provides that an employee's right to recover workmen's compensation from an employer is also applicable against the employer's insurance carrier.

The second provides that the right of an employer to sue a third person who has injured or caused the death of an employee is not barred by contributory fault on the part of the employer, except where the employer was guilty of serious and willful misconduct and in other specific cases.

McCarthy's third bill would require the Department of Parks and Recreation to extend for five years existing leases for cabins in the Steep Ravine section of Mount Tamalpais State Park. The leases on the cabins, which were constructed before the ravine became a part of the park, will run out in 1964 unless the measure is passed.

Earlier Bagley introduced bills to provide that the responsibility of a representative of a dead owner of a vehicle is termminated when the registration of the vehicle is transferred.

BRAKES WORKED TOO HARD

This nearly head-on collision east of Olema yesterday was caused by the very gadgets built to avoid trouble—brakes, which locked on the pickup truck at the right and skidded it across a curve of Sir Francis Drake Boulevard into the approaching sedan at the left. David Cooley, 15, of 23 Sentinel Court, San Rafael, suffered scalp cuts when he was thrown into the truck's windshield. The youth was treated at Marin General Hospital and released. Here California Highway Patrolman J. H. Kendricks supervises removal of the sedan by tow truck. (Independent-Journal photo)

Gov. Brown Off To Washington So Anderson Has Temporary Job

SACRAMENTO (AP) — A soft-spoken stand-in is running California as acting governor today and trying, he says, to create "no commotion" while Gov. Edmund G. Brown away.

Democratic Lt. Gov. Glenn M. Anderson approved his first legislative bill, signed a stack of extradition papers and greeted three rain-soaked 50-mile hikers yesterday.

But Anderson, taking over during Brown's five-day trip to Washington, made it clear he doesn't intend to do anything to capitalize on his temporary role.

"I've always tried to work with the governor without stepping on toes," he said in an interview.

The crew-cut lieutenant governor used the opportunity to put in a pitch for Brown in 1966.

"There's a strong feeling up and down the state that the governor should seek a third term," he said.

"Pat Brown has done a great job. I feel that he is going to be regarded as one of the greatest governors California has ever had."

Anderson, beginning his second term as lieutenant governor, said it was entirely too early to begin talking about possible other Democratic candidates in the event Brown doesn't run again.

Those possibilities, so far, include Anderson, Assembly Speaker Jesse M. Unruh (D-Los Angeles), Controller Alan Cranston and Atty. Gen. Stanley Mosk.

Anderson said he doesn't see why a political collision is inevitable among various Democratic factions.

He said he would oppose attempts by anyone to capture control of the 70,000-member California Democratic Council, hastening to add that the "anyone" didn't refer to Unruh.

There have been published reports of moves by Unruh supporters to take over local units of the Democratic campaign organization with an eye on the CDC itself. The Unruh people deny it.

"I don't think the kind of vacuum exists that would permit someone to come in and take over the CDC," Anderson said. "Maybe somebody can capture units here and there but not the entire CDC."

"The CDC performed an important function when we did not have incumbents in office," he went on. "Now that the Democrats hold most state offices and control both houses of the Legislature, it's the CDC role to work with us, give us guidance and suggestions but recognize that each of us is an individual in his own right."

Rafferty Text Stand Called Inconsistent

SACRAMENTO (AP)—Maxwell Rafferty's stand on state textbooks was called inconsistent yesterday by Nathaniel S. Colley, a member of the State Board of Education.

Rafferty, state superintendent of public instruction, said Monday that he wants local schools to be able to select elementary textbooks from a state-approved list.

At present they must use uniform texts supplied by the state.

Rafferty said his aim was to assure California's children the "best" books.

Colley said that under the system Rafferty endorsed, local schools could choose the fifth-rated book from a list of five, for example.

He said he saw no indication that the Board of Education will change its 1961 stand against the "multiple adoption" plan backed by Rafferty, and re-introduced this year by Assemblyman Gordon Winton Jr. (D-Merced).

Colley also said Rafferty should not commit the Education Department on any proposed legislation without approval by the board, which is the policy making group for the department.

"I don't intend to see anyone usurping the board's functions," Colley said.

SACRAMENTO SUMMARY

SACRAMENTO Summary std hed
By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Lt. Gov. Glenn Anderson, acting governor while Brown is back East, approves his first legislative bill.

THE GOVERNOR

Appointed Harry P. Schmidt to State Disaster Council.

Bill signed:

Lettuce — Authorizes director of agriculture to modify lettuce size standards to permit Imperial Valley growers to market undersize lettuce after frost damage; SB 324, Sen. Quick (D-Calexico).

THE SENATE

Resolutions adopted:

Airlines — Asks Congress to oppose proposed revision of subsidy formula of Civil Aeronautics Board which would result in decrease of local air service to California cities; SJR 7, Sturgeon, R-San Luis Obispo.

Counsel — Authorizes rules committee to retain private attorney to represent Senate against reapportionment suits; SR 49, Regan (D-Weaverville).

Bills introduced:

Construction — Requires rather than authorizes city or county to require completion security from a subdivider; SB 664, Bradley (R-San Jose).

Textbooks — Authorizes president of state college to order elementary school state textbooks for use by education students; SB 680, Donnelly (D-Turlock).

Liquor — Requires liquor stores to remain open between 8 a.m. and midnight rather than 6 a.m. and 2 a.m.; SB 686, Lagomarsino (R-Ventura).

THE ASSEMBLY

Bills introduced:

Retarded — Creates Governor's Advisory Commission on Mental Retardation; AB 1193, Alquist (D-San Jose).

Voting — Requires polls to remain open until 8 p.m. in counties using voting machines; AB 1195, Petris (D-Oakland).

Firemen — Provides that firemen employed by local agencies shall not work more than 56 hours a week; AB 1194, Elliott (D-Los Angeles).

Gifted — Allows school districts to hold Saturday classes for mentally gifted children; AB 1187, Cologne (R-Indio).

Guns — Makes it a misdemeanor to sell a gun to anyone under 16 years of age; AB 1182, Greene (D-Sacramento).

Driving — Requires drivers to agree to submit to blood alcohol tests and provides that blood alcohol content of .15 per cent is evidence of intoxication; AB 1176, Bee (D-Hayward).

Employment — Expands Fair Employment Practices Commission from five to seven members; AB 1201, Ferrell (D-Los Angeles).

Resolution introduced:

Colleges — Requires legislature to study possibility of increasing state support to junior colleges; ACR 36, Garrigus (D- Reedley).

Governor Makes Move To Enlarge FEPC In State

SACRAMENTO (AP) — The first of Gov. Edmund G. Brown's bills aimed at reducing racial discrimination in California hit the legislature yesterday, Lincoln's Birthday.

Brown plans to send a special message on the subject to the lawmakers tomorrow.

The first bill was put in by Assemblyman F. Douglas Ferrell (D-Los Angeles), a Negro minister.

It would expand the Fair Employment Practices Commission from five to seven members.

Brown says a larger commission is needed because of the added duties he plans to give it: Authority to fight housing discrimination, and to initiate action in its present field — employment discrimination.

The 1959 law which created the FEPC limited it to acting on complaints by individuals who claim they were discriminated against by employers because of race, creed, color or ancestry.

Brown's effort to extend the commission's power to housing failed in 1961, although that legislature did forbid discrimination in "publicly assisted" housing — that financed by government — insured loans.

The governor also plans to ask that the commission be re-named the "Human Rights Commission," in line with its proposed new duties.

Tam Election Survey Head Is Announced

Sandra Vandyke, Tamalpais High School senior, has been named head of the school's election survey committee by Gregory Cory, student body president.

The committee of 30 students tallies results of student body and class elections. Miss Vandyke is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Vandyke of 274 Manor Drive, Mill Valley.

New Drake Teacher

James Brown has replaced Mrs. Adrian Cobb, Sir Francis Drake High School biology and physiology teacher, who recently resigned because of health. Brown was a former student teacher under supervision of Ellsworth Hagen.

Mill Valley Lions Set Speech Contest

Six high school students are to participate in the Mill Valley Lions Club 26th student speakers contest to be held at 7:30 p.m. next Tuesday at the Mill Valley Golf Clubhouse.

They represent Tamalpais, Redwood High and Marin Catholic High Schools. Their subject is "conformity, a real challenge to me." Winners will be eligible for the regional contest in San Rafael to be held before March 15, according to Stephen P. Dimitroff, contest chairman.

Teachers Convention

Albert Lavin, head of the English department at Sir Francis Drake High School, and James Pierce, teacher and supervisor of English from Redwood High School, will attend the California Assn. of Teachers of English convention in Los Angeles on March 21, 22, and 23.

Actors Needed For 50th Mountain Play

More than 100 actors will be needed for the 50th Mountain Play, "Tamalpa," to be presented in the Mountain Theater on May 19 and 26, director Dan Totheroh announced today.

Tryouts will be held at 8 p.m. on Feb. 21 and 28 at the Greenbrae School. Lead players are particularly needed now, Totheroh said. Children and crowd scene players will be cast later.

Accidents Caused By Rain

Jo Ann Fortenbery of Vallejo was treated for cuts and bruises at Novato General Hospital after a station wagon driven by Sharon Arlene Garper, Vallejo student, left a curve on the Black Point Cutoff eastbound half a mile west of the Petaluma Creek Bridge at 4 p.m.

Miss Garper told the California Highway Patrol the wagon skidded, she braked hard, the wagon spun, hit a bank along which it ran for 100 feet, then overturned but came up on its wheels again.

In a similar accident Michael Thomas Martin, 17, of 87 East Crescent Drive, San Rafael, escaped unscathed when his car southbound on Highway 101 half a mile south of the Corte Madera overpass took out 60 feet of cyclone fence at Meadowsweet Drive.

Martin's car similarly turned over on its top but kept turning to land on its wheels once more.

Driving a pickup truck, Jon Eugene Field of 21 Vendola Drive, Santa Venetia, southbound on Highway 101 at 1:15 p.m. and just north of the San Rafael overpass, skidded to the center of the highway after passing another car. His truck took out 100 feet of newly placed posts in the middle of the highway.

His companion, Dennis Brewer, 17, of 632 Vendola Drive, suffered bruises but said he would consult his family physician. The patrol cited Field for operating at unsafe speed and having "bald" unsafe tires.

Alfred H. Aston, San Francisco truck driver, turned left northbound on Highway 101 at Vallejo Street in Novato at 3:15 p.m. James W. Cartee, 18, of 1840 Virginia Avenue, Novato, a Novato High School student, was traveling in a coupe in the same direction to the left of the truck and rammed into it with minor injury to Bonnie Luster, 16, of 484 Olive Street, Novato, who declined hospitalization.

The patrol cited Aston on charges of making an improper left turn resulting in a collision.

Child Welfare Meet

Perry Hall, executive director of Sunny Hills in San Anselmo, and E. T. Hermann of 11 Marina Way, San Rafael, will participate in the 11th South Pacific regional conference of the Child Welfare League of America at the Jack Tar Hotel in San Francisco, March 7-9. Hall will be program chairman of the conference. Herman is a member of the board of directors of the league.

In Hawaii Exercise

Army Pfc. Douglas K. Macdonald of Mill Valley is participating in Exercise Lava Ridge II, a combined Army-Air Force mobility exercise in the Hawaiian Islands. He is stationed at Schofield Barracks with the 25th Infantry Division. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Frank D. MacDonald, 11 Sky Road, Mill Valley.

MARINSHIP PLAN GETS GOING-OVER

The Sausalito City Council agreed last night that there should be no motels in the commercial-industrial section of Marinship.

It agreed the bulkhead line should be set back 250 feet from its present location, that offices be included in the commercial - industrial area, and that restaurants and bars may be included in the waterfront area. But the council could not agree upon a height maximum for Marinship buildings.

Discussionu of the Marinship Plan, one of many hearings, will be continued but no specific date was set.

Councilman Michael Harris, heading the subcommittee making the report, said that William E. Spangle Jr., city planning consultant, recommends a Marinship height maximum of 50 feet, the planning commission suggests 40 feet, and the city's overall height restriction is 32 feet.

"The one argument for changing the height limit in Marinship is that there is something highly special about Marinship and its character that would warrant such a change," Harris said.

He noted that Marinship is almost completely flat, unlike other parts of Sausalito; that it is low to begin with and is "off a cliff" from Bridgeway, and that variation of heights in such cases might make buildings look more interesting.

Councilman Philip E. Ehrlich Jr. favored 50 feet, saying the purpose of the 32-foot limit elsewhere in the city is to protect views. Councilman Howard Sievers suggested 40-41 feet.

Harris agreed with Sievers. "I don't want to adopt it until I know more about it," said Mayor Paul Micou. Councilman Jan Paul Dyk was absent due to illness. The decision was postponed.

In other action on the Marinship plan, the Sausalito Council:

1. Agreed that the minimum apartment requirement should be 1.500 square feet per unit.

2. Voted 3-1, Sievers voting "no," to move the bulkhead line in 250 feet from its present line.

3. Changed the designation of parcels of land owned by Vincent Whitney Co., Cement Gunn, and a portion of the A. G. Schoonmaker Co. land from waterfront to commercial-industrial. Robert M. Gunn and Ellis Lando objected.

4. Said a developer building in Marinship could have six-foot elevation for parking areas if he put in forced drainage.

Marinship property owner Russell H. Pappenhausen argued in favor of motels being permitted in the commercial-industrial area, saying they would be needed by business men and that the working man might not be able to afford to stay in the waterfront area where boatels and hotels are permitted. Mel Wax, planning commissioner chairman, said motels, which are permitted no place in Sausalito, are residential and do not belong in commercial-industrial districts.

Lando told the council that if a man wants to put a motel next to a glue factory, such as Hercules Glue Co. in Marinship, "that should be his preference."

Music Scholarship Auditions To Be Held

Auditions for scholarships at the Rocky Ridge Music Center in Estes Park, Colo., will be held during February and March in the home of Louis H. Babst, 12 Reed Boulevard, Strawberry Manor, regional auditions chairman.

At the summer camp, youths playing musical instruments or studying voice attend classes, perform and study under artist-teachers. Information on time and application for auditions may be obtained from Babst.

March Of Dimes Car Wash Saturday

Five teen-agers, representing the Teen-agers of Marin, will conduct a March of Dimes car wash in Marinwood Saturday if it does not rain.

The benefit was originally scheduled last week, but rain forced it to be called off. The car wash will be from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. at Paul's Union Station.

Honor T Film

The Tamalpais High School Honor T Society will sponsor the movie, "Breakfast at Tiffany's," March 20 at the Sequoia Theater, Mill Valley, to earn money for the E. E. Wood Scholarships.

WOMAN SLASHES WRISTS ON BUS

A medical secretary from San Francisco slashed her wrists with a razor blade while riding a Greyhound bus from San Francisco to Kentfield last night.

Carlisle Sullivan, 23, of 1830 Clay Street collapsed at the Kentfield firehouse, bleeding profusely from her wrists, and was taken to Marin General Hospital about 11:15 p.m. She was given first aid and transferred to a hospital in San Francisco.

Bus driver O. S. Breeze of San Francisco stopped the bus at the Kentfield firehouse and called the sheriff.

Sheriff's Sgt. Edward McKamey said the young woman kept asking for a doctor stationed at Hamilton Field, whom she had been dating.

Seven Running For Office At College

Seven candidates today were in the running for four student offices at College of Marin, announced student counselor John F. Gillin.

They and any others who return nomination papers before the deadline of 11 a.m. tomorrow will speak at an assembly in Olney Hall at 12:15 p.m. tomorrow. The Wayfarers, folk-singing group from the Hungry I, will entertain.

These students have filed for office:

James McCarthy of Hamilton Air Force Base for freshman men's representative; Irene Lunding of San Rafael and Nancy Bernecut of San Anselmo, freshman women's representative; Cary Carrillo of Mill Valley, David Campbell of Inverness and Kent Schew of Larkspur, sophomore men's representative, and Katherine Boganski of Kentfield, sophomore women's representative.

At least one other nominating petition is out, Gillin said.

Elections will be held from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. Friday on the brick steps of Harlan Hall.

Georgia has the largest area of any state east of the Mississippi River, 58,876 square miles.

Work Set On West Marin Plan

Members of the Marin Coast Chamber of Commerce, meeting at Rancho Nicasio last night, named a committee of five to help develop the West Marin Master Plan for the Marin County Planning Department.

The five will work with Mary Summers, former county planning director, who is working on the plan. Those appointed were Larry H. Marks Jr. and Frank P. Myer of Inverness, Don DeWolfe and L. F. Teuscher of Point Reyes Station, and Emma Benevenga of Inverness.

James A. Marshall of Tomales, chamber president, said the committee will let Mrs. Summers know the wishes of the chamber in planning of West Marin.

The chamber also named a committee of Mrs. Benevenga, DeWolfe, and William Hoffman, Seibert L. Sefton and Hugh Dougherty of Stinson Beach to investigate possible sites for trailer parks for tourists.

Maggi Gnau, managing director of the Marin Visitors Bureau, spoke to members about the growth that is expected in West Marin.

Board To Seek Realistic Rate On Aged Medical Aid Plan

Marin County supervisors decided today to write state officials to ask what hope, if any, exists for obtaining a realistic rate on the Medical Assistance for the Aged program.

Administrator Alan Bruce warned that "there must be a change announced before Aug. 1 or we're in trouble with the present freeze lasting only until May 1."

He warned further than more talk about new surveys will not suffice. He said that if another meeting is to be held "they should tell you what they will do."

"We've reached a stage where we are entitled to some definite proposals for relief," said Supervisor Peter Behr.

Chairman Walter R. Castro agreed that Marin County's plight in being unable to find nursing homes ready to give proper service for $219 per patient per month is now well understood.

The board received reports on meetings of Welfare Director Betty L. Presley and others with attorney Robert Smallman and his client, William Gardner, concerning a proposal to build a new home giving service on the $219 rate, but found small encouragement.

Auditor Michael Mitchell said homes with which Gardner is connected in Washington and Oregon give only two-thirds of the service to patients required by California law.

"You're not talking about the same thing; it's a case of comparing apples and oranges," said Mitchell.

Mill Valley Woman Found Dead; Mate Talking To Her

Mill Valley police today found Mrs. Alice Nicholson Young dead in her apartment at 411 Miller Avenue, her husband, Raleigh Wilson Young, talking to her as if she were yet alive.

County Coroner Frank J. Keaton said Young, 73, was apparently in a state of shock. Mill Valley police had him moved to a hospital for observation.

Mrs. Young, 73, was found sitting in an overstuffed chair at 7 a.m. by Officer Robert Dyche. He had been called to the home, Apartment 3, by a Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co. operator who said police assistance was needed at that address.

Young, Dyche said, was talking to his wife, asking if she felt better. He later said she had died at 3 p.m. yesterday, but Keaton estimated she had been dead for three days.

Mrs. Young was born in New Zealand. She was a retired clerk, having worked with the Methodist Publishing Co. She had lived in Mill Valley with her husband, a retired Santa Fe railroad conductor, for 15 years.

Keaton, said he believed death to be natural, but an autopsy would be performed. Funeral arrangements are pending at Russell and Gooch Mortuary, Mill Valley.

Hub City Merchants Set Bargain Days

San Anselmo merchants will hold their first Bargain Days event of the year on Feb. 28 and March 1 and 2, it was announced today by Abe Froman, chairman of the merchants' committee.

Froman asked that merchants contact him for assisitance and information because the chamber's secretary-manager, George G. Washburn, has been ill for the past few weeks.

Marine Officer Makes Fast Work Of His 50-Mile Hike

CAMP LEJEUNE, N.C. (AP)—When a president raises a doubt and when your commanding general and your girl friend are waiting—about all any sensible Marine can do is to come through handsomely.

And so First Lt. Donald L. Bernath of Wauseon, Ohio, did just that.

While nine powerful lights lit up an otherwise gloomy scene, Bernath sprinted down the straightaway to become the first of 34 Marines to finish a 50-mile hike.

Others wearily pounded on through the night.

Brig. Gen. Rathvon McClure Tompkins, 51, the highest ranking officer making the hike, finished today. His hiking time was 15 hours, 32 minutes.

UNDER 12 HOURS

Bernath started walking at 8:05 a.m., and wound up at 8:52 p.m. with time out for one rest stop, his marching time was 11 hours and 44 minutes.

In second place came Lt. Harry J. Crossen Jr., of Philadelphia, who plodded home in 11 hours and 59 minutes.

President John F. Kennedy, who had wondered if the Marines of today are as fit as those of 1908, could not have had a better answer than the one Bernath supplied.

With his date, Rita Morris of nearby Jacksonville, joining him for about 25 yards of his final 200-yard sprint, Bernath raced over the finish line to receive in person the congratulations of Maj. Gen. Frederick L. Wieseman, commander of the 2nd Marine division.

Bernath wasn't even breathing hard. And he had time for a few words of advice to anyone who also might wish to spend the day hiking 50 miles.

'STAY IN SHAPE'

"Stay in shape," Bernath said, "and get out from behind that desk."

Reporters who had tagged along—by car, of course—with the marchers, had early found that Bernath is the type who plays it cool.

At one rest stop, he stretched out in a ditch, elevated his feet on the bank—"it gets the blood back into my head"—and calmly announced he had a date he fully intended to keep.

He confessed he had made one error.

"My mistake was to walk on the pavement too soon," Bernath said. "You get shin splints, and it's like walking on needles."

Everyone Is Marching —But Pierre Salinger

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Marines are marching. Girls are marching. Practically everyone seems to be marching. But Pierre Salinger is not marching.

He has a bad case of cold feet.

"I may be plucky, but I am not stupid," the president's plump press secretary announced yesterday, and thus retired bowed but unbloodied from the New Frontier's sole-trying fitness course.

And so doing, he may have won a place in the hearts of all presidential assistants and the White House press corps. It was Salinger who had volunteered to pace them on a Friday hike along the C and O Canal.

With the leader gone, the expedition has collapsed, with many a sigh of relief.

Some 10 young Capitol Hill secretaries plan to carry the colors of the legislative branch today in an assault on the old canal towpath. They are not trying to match the leathernecks.

"Who are we to challenge the Marines?" said Shia Green of New York, secretary to Rep. Charles S. Joelson (D-N.J.). Their challenge was aimed at the portly press secretary. Said Shia: "We're sure Salinger can't come anywhere near us."

Salinger later proved her right.

In bowing out, the 37-year-old press secretary characterized himself as a fat man whose physical condition leaves something to be desired. He said the personal consequences of a strenuous hike might prove disastrous.

President John F. Kennedy's Council on Physical Fitness cleared the way for Salinger's retreat by saying, earlier in the day, that long hikes are fine for Marines and others who are in top physical condition.

REED DISTRICT SCHOOL MIGHT BE SPLIT BY RAILROAD TRACKS

"Oh the train goes through the middle of the house" may be the school song of a school to be built on the Denton property by Reed Union School District.

Supt. Edward C. Pino reported last night that negotiations to purchase the site are under way but the county planning staff is recommending the acreage straddle the railroad track with a building on one side, the playground on the other, and a connecting walkway over the railroad tunnel. The school district wants its property all on one side of the tracks.

He said also there are hints of rapid transit on this track in the future.

"We are still negotiating," said Pino.

$600,000 Building Aid Approved For Schools

Building aid totaling nearly $600,000 has been approved for three North Marin school districts, it was anounced today by officials of the State Allocation Board.

Largest allocation was to the San Jose District, which will receive $192,178 to construct six classrooms and a library at the Loma Verde Elementary School.

The board approved applications by the Dixie School District for $48,218 for a new kindergarten room at its Lucas Valley School and $153,529 for an administration unit at Don Timoteo School.

Requests by Novato Unified School District for $185,322 for six classrooms at West Novato Elementary School and $19,750 for purchase of another 1.7 acres for its 10-acre Rancho School addition site also were approved.

Aircraft Course

Army Pvt. William R. Coulter, son of Mr. and Mrs. James R. Coulter, 346 Keystone Court, San Rafael, recently completed a five-week aircraft maintenance course at the Aviation School, Fort Rucker, Ala.

Scholarship Tests

National merit scholarship qualifying tests will be given to Tamalpais High School juniors March 9. Sixty students have signed to take the tests which, on high scores, qualify students for scholarship aid.

GOP Is Told How To Make Party 'Progressive Force' For Nation

If Republicans can agree on three basic tenets of their party, they will be "a progressive force" for the nation, Joseph Martin Jr. of San Francisco, GOP national committeeman, told the Marin Republican Alliance last night.

At a Lincoln's Day dinner in Tiburon Tommie's, Tiburon, Martin listed the three as:

1. Fiscal responsibility based on a balanced budget without attempting "cradle to the grave" responsibility for the people.

2. Upholding the dignity of the individual, helping to solve problems without turning to government.

3. Protecting individual and civil liberties as the only party "capable of a sincere position on civil rights."

"We must protect our liberties or, with growing government, they will disappear," he declared.

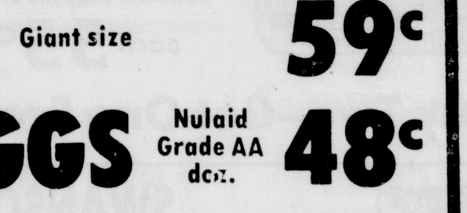

Tally P. Mastrangelo of Sausalito, Alliance president, presided at the dinner of about 150 persons.

Assemblyman William T. Bagley of San Rafael told the group that the outnumbered Republicans in Sacramento can best serve the party by "sharpening the knives" of the Democrats who are "fraught with fratricide." He said "great power plays" are under way in the Capitol, particularly between Assembly Speaker Jesse M. Unruh and Controller Alan Cranston. His own bill to put inheritance tax appraisers under civil service instead of the controller's patronage "has a good chance of passage this session" because "Jesse has endorsed it."

Marin Sen. John F. McCarthy lashed out at Gov. Edmund G. Brown's "attempts to fool the taxpayers" with statements about no new taxes. He said the per capita tax for the coming year per $100 of income would increase more than ever before. "If you are paying more tax, I say you've had a tax increase," McCarthy declared.

A special presentation for "outstanding leadership" during the recent special congressional election was made to David Winslow of Tiburon. He was Marin chairman of the Clausen for Congress campaign.

BETTE BENASKI

Homemaker Award For Novato Girl

BETTE Benaski, a Novato High School senior, has been chosen Homemaker of Tomorrow" at Novato High School.

She achieved the highest score in the high school in the 1963 Betty Crocker search for the "American Homemaker of Tomorrow." She now becomes eligible to compete with other winners throughout California for the state homemaker of tomorrow.

Bette is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard E. Benaski of 647 Peach Street, Novato. She has been a 4-H Club member in the Novato Aggies for seven years.

Reed Authorizes Bid Advertising

Reed Union School District trustees last night authorized advertising for bids on the Reed School addition, to be opened at 5 p.m. on Feb. 28 at the district office.

The bids will be reviewed at the trustees meeting on March 12 at 8 p.m. at the Reed School.

Trustee Erwin C. Farley announced he will not be a candidate for re-election in the April 16 election.

Novato Shop's Door Is Pried

The door of Moore's Style Shop at 1518 Grant Avenue, in the Talbott Building, Novato, was pried open last night, but nothing was taken, according to Novato police.

The attempted entry was discovered at 8 a.m. today by Clark M. Palmer Jr., city attorney, when he went to his office in the same building.

Police stopped three men in front of the building at 2:30 a.m., Chief Roy McLaren said, but let them go because it was not known at the time that an attempt at burglary had been made.

Underwater Films Set At Boyd Museum

The Louise A. Boyd Natural Science Museum will sponsor the showing of underwater color films and slides taken off La Paz in Baja California at 8 o'clock tonight in the museum auditorium, Al Bottleson, director, announced today.

George Tsegeletos of Stan's Sports Equipment, who took the 1,000 feet of marine film last year, will show and narrate it. There is no admission charge.

Seaman Promoted

Leon S. Sankey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Sankey of 304 D Street, San Rafael, has been promoted to Navy missile technician seaman at the guided missile school at Mare Island Naval Shipyard.

Civic Affairs Group Will Discuss Buses

How commuters might be encouraged to increase their patronage of buses will be the subject of a discussion by the Marin Council for Civic Affairs' Committee on metropolitan problems tomorrow at 8 p.m.

Representatives of Deleuw-Cather Co., San Francisco engineering firm, will report on commuter bus studies made by the firm in Alameda and Contra Costa counties, and how such studies might indicate similar problems in Marin. Also attending the meeting will be Supervisor Peter Behr and representatives of the Golden Gate Bridge District board.

The meeting will be held in the board of supervisors room at the Marin County Civic Center.

Completes Training

Army Pvt. Charles H. Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Brown, 25 Redding Way, San Rafael, recently completed eight weeks of advanced training as a cannoneer at the Artillery and Missile Center, Fort Sill, Okla.

ASTRONAUT'S SHOT RESET TO MID-MAY

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—Astronaut Leroy Gordon Cooper Jr. won't go obiting the earth until mid-May.

In disclosing yesterday that his space jaunt is being postponed from early April, the Manned Spacecraft Center said electricians will rewire controls of the Atlas booster which is to launch the Air Force major on a scheduled .22-orbit trip.

Argentina, shaped like a triangle, is about 900 miles wide in the north, 150 miles wide in the south and 2,300 miles long.

Terra Linda CSD Seeks Traffic Signal

Terra Linda Community Services District directors again last night discussed the alleged need for a traffic signal at Las Gallinas Avenue and Freitas parkway, and decided to seek help from the Draper Co. in putting up a signal.

The City of San Rafael has refused to pay for installation of a signal, holding it is not yet needed. CSD directors considered asking the Draper firm, developers of Northgate Shopping Center, to share the cost.

Several residents near the intersection told the board the area is becoming increasingly congested with heavy traffic dangerous to schoolchildren.

The CSD directors agreed to "definitely" appoint a replacement for Director John E. Duckett at their March 12 meeting. Duckett resigned in December, and no replacement has been considered yet.

Director Richard Less reported that laboratory fees for physical examinations of all volunteer firemen would cost $65 each. If the fire department's 20 volunteers decide they want the examinations, the district may include the money for the fees in the 1963-64 budget for the fire department.

TAX FACTS

When You Should File Joint Return

By PETER J. WIKEL, C.P.A.

Should you file a joint Federal return?

If you were married on December 31, 1962, you may file a joint return with your spouse regardless of how long a time you have been married and regardless of whether or not your spouse has income.

P. J. Wikel

If your net income is over $2,000 a joint return will result in a lower tax.

In making a joint return you will include all the income, exemptions and deductions of both the husband and wife. In heading the return, you list both names.

For instance: John J. and Mary M. Doe. Also you show both social security numbers and both occupations if both have income. It is not necessary that both have income in order to file a joint return.

Husband and wife must both sign and date a joint return. Each assumes the responsibility for any tax due. If one does not pay, then the other must. If you are entitled to a refund, the check will be issued in both names and both will have to endorse the check before cashing.

In some cases, it is not possible to secure the signature of your spouse on the tax return. It is possible to file a joint return without having your spouse actually sign the return itself.

This is done by having the spouse sign Treasury Department Form 936 which is an authorization to prepare, sign and file a joint income tax return.

A signed copy of this Form 936 is attached to the return in lieu of the spouse's signature.

If any tax has been paid separately by withholding or on an estimate, full credit may be taken on the joint return.

Talk Set At Temple On Sunday

John Roy Carlson, author and lecturer, will speak at 7:30 p.m. Sunday at Temple Rodef Sholom, 170 North San Pedro Road, Santa Venetia, on the Middle East.

Carlson, whose book "Under Cover," exposed extremist groups in America during World War II, has also written "The Plotters" and "Cairo to Damascus."

He has recently returned from a tour of the Middle East, Europe, the Caribbean and Latin America. His talk will be open to the public.

Summer School Sets Dates In Mill Valley

Summer session will last four weeks in the Mill Valley School District this year, beginning July 1, four class periods daily.

The program, reported upon Monday by Joseph Womack, principal of Strawberry Point School, will be held in Alto and Edna Maguire schools.

Rewiring and painting will use up most of the remaining bond funds earmarked for reconversion of Old Mill School auditorium, architect Eugene E. Crawford told the board. There is $12,000 available in the bond building fund and from maintenance funds in the current operating budget and of this, $7,000 is expected to be needed for painting the auditorium and about $2,550 for rewiring. The board requested that the painting and rewiring be started.

Crawford said another $7,850 is needed for work such as floor patching, drapery and replacing door and window frames and $5,000 for improving heating, ventilation and plumbing.

Trustees agreed that work would be done this summer to reconvert a basement room to a library to make it at least "useable" for the fall term. A minimum of $5,445 is needed for the library project.

The board granted maternity leave effective April 19 to Mrs. Myron Cook, Alto first grade teacher, and hired George L. Alton of Stinson Beach as Park School custodian.

'Curious Savage' Rehearsals On

Rehearsals are under way for the Tamalpais High School District play, "The Curious Savage," to be presented by faculty members for the benefit of scholarships at the district's three high schools.

Performances, beginning at 8 p.m., will be held at Sir Francis Drake High School Little Theater March 1 and 2, Tamalpais High School's Ruby Scott Auditorium March 8 and 9, and Redwood High School's Little Theater March 15 and 16.

Language Teachers To Train

Foreign language teachers in Tamalpais High School District will try out new classroom methods in training classes during March and April at Redwood High School.

The series of classes, designed to acquaint teachers with audio-lingual teaching, will be held on March 6, 13, 20, 27, April 3, 17, and May 1.

Miles McColm, Sir Francis Drake High School teacher of Spanish and instructional supervisor for the foreign language departments of the district, said teachers will be able to determine whether the methods can be successful.

The classes will meet from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. under direction of James Garvey of Acalanes High School in Walnut Creek. Garvey served the district as a consultant in the summer language workshop of 1962.

The State of Delaware was named after Lord De La Warr, who entered the bay in 1610.

Ski Resorts Hard Hit By Year's Weather

SONORA (AP) — Sunshine and rain have cost Northern California ski resorts well over one million dollars.

A survey shows revenue losses up to today of $934,000 from six resorts alone.

Mount Shasta was the one bright spot. With Sierra slopes bare, skiers flocked to the snow covered slides on Shasta. The number of skiers was up 130 per cent in December, 25 per cent in January.

Year-old Alpine Meadows reported $150,000 loss.

The Sugar Bowl was $145,000 behind.

Heavenly Valley is $140,000 behind, but now has its upper two ski lifts operating.

Badger Pass reported gross $129,000 behind.

Squaw Valley is open now on a daily basis but the crowds aren't there.

Donner Ski Ranch hasn't run a lift this season. Edelweiss hasn't opened. Echo Summit Ski Area is well behind last season.

Tomales Bay Boat Marina Request Given Engineers

Application for permission for a small boat marina at the Golden Hinde Boatel on the west shore of Tomales Bay north of Inverness has been made to the Army Corps of Engineers.

County planning commissioners have recently allowed expansion of the boatel's overnight lodging accommodations and rezoning of this and adjacent property for limited highway commercial status. It fronts on Sir Francis Drake Boulevard.

The application to the Army Engineer District for a permit on navigational grounds says that the proposed work would consist of dredging a boat basin to depth of three feet below mean lower low water, with bulkheads along the outer perimeter of the basin and a single bulkhead within the enclosed area. Eight thousand cubic yards would be dredged. Bulkheads would extend 8½ feet above the low water line.

The accompanying map indicates that this work would be without change to the existing motel and boat shop structures.

Application is by Inverness Properties, Inc., of Berkeley.

Objections may be submitted in triplicate to the Corps of Engineers at 180 New Montgomery Street, San Francisco, by March 11.

Address Of Injured

The address of Margaret W. Del Pino of 133 Butterfield Road, San Anselmo, a pedestrian injured by a car Saturday in San Rafael, was incorrectly listed in a news story Monday. The mishap broke a bone in Mrs. Del Pino's left foot.

Scholars Named At Catholic High

Twenty-five Marin Catholic High School students, 18 per cent of the senior class, have been named semi-finalists in competition for California state scholarships, it was announced today by Rev. Edward Dullea, principal.

They were John Faville, Donald Hemovich, Peter Muzic, Michael DiMuro, John Hassett, Marchia Frideger, Cathleen Theobald, Donna Storrs, Edward Droesch, Paula Mohr, Maureen Donavan, Steven Arntz, George Fedoroff, Susan Franz, John Winters, Paula McCann, Raymond Giordano, Cavan Holliday, Sheila Quinn, Michael Grady, John Pollock, Nancy Lawrence, Gayle Wittenmeier, Sandra Helbert and Patrick Murray.

Michael Peele, a 1962 graduate, also was named by the state scholarship commission.

School Photos Due KTIM Airing

Do out-of-county photographers hold a monopoly on pictures for senior yearbooks in Marin high schools?

That is the question to be discussed by four panelists on radio KTIM's "Sounding Board" from 9 to 10 a.m. tomorrow.

The panelists will be Robert J. McKeay, principal of Novato High School; Mrs. Daniel F. Deedy, mother of two Redwood High School students; Philip Planert, president of the Marin Photographers Assn., and a fourth panelist to be announced.

The broadcast, moderated by Kitty Oppenheimer, will be repeated by tape recording at 12:30 p.m.

ALONG MARIN'S SPORTS TRAIL

50 Miles Should Be A Breeze For Marin Athletic Club Stars

Marin County, which already has gained considerable nationwide publicity in the crazy Fifty-Mile-Fever epidemic, thanks to the kids of Redwood High, stands to reap some more honors this weekend.

The sturdy members of the Marin Athletic Club have announced plans for an attempt to travel 50 miles in less than 10 hours. Why they expect to take that long puzzles me after I examine some of their records.

MIKE SHAFER

For example, take Mike Shafer, the San Rafael High star athlete, who will run for the Marin A.C. Master Mike, whose most recent sports achievement was as an All-League halfback, last spring won the Northern California quarter-mile championship in something like 49.5 seconds. Lessee, if he averaged that over 50 miles he'd make it to Pt. Reyes Station and back in less than three hours!

Three other Marin A.C. runners also should do the 50-miler with ease, though not nearly as fast as Shafer. They are Barney Hope and Wes Hildreth of Mill Valley and Bill Ranney of Fairfax. All three recently completed the 26-mile, 385-yard Western Hemisphere marathon in less than 3 hours, 15 minutes. Simple arithmetic tells us they should be able to go 50 miles, then, in less than seven hours.

I don't know why they set such a slow goal of 10 hours.

SERIOUSLY, Ranney said about 10 to 15 Marin A.C. runners would set out on the trek at 5 a.m. Saturday, following the same course taken by Redwood students on their bunion-bustin' march Monday. They hope to get to Pt. Reyes Station and back to the Redwood campus by 3 p.m.

Others slated to attempt the Fast Fifty are Mike Johnson, Bill Henry, Guy Hester, Jeff Berg, Chuck Zaloudek and Gail Herman, all of San Rafael High's track team, and possibly others who want to tag along.

If they leave at 5 a.m. I expect Shafer to be back at 8 a.m.—at the latest. The slow poke.

ELEANOR FREEMAN, our outboard boating columnist (Prop Wash) will be out of action for a while. You see, Mrs. Freeman suffered a broken wrist the other day while helping hubby get their outboard under way. Blush, blush.

For Palmer, A Bee Is Man's Best Friend

By HAL WOOD

PHOENIX, Ariz. (UPI) — Arnold Palmer headed for a little vacation today with the idea that a bee can be a man's best friend.

Emperor Arnie won the $35,000 Phoenix Open Golf tournament yesterday after sweating out a decision by the U.S.G.A. that a bee that landed on his golf ball and moved it a fraction of an inch toward the hole was not illegal help.

If it had been, Palmer could have been penalized at least a stroke and wound up in a deadlock with Gary Player. As it was, Arnie won the event for the third consecutive time and picked up a check for $5,300.

To get the victory, Arnie shot a two-under-par 70, the same as Player, and wound up with a 273 total. Player, winning $3,400, finished second, shooting a 70 also, for 274.

"I'm playing such good golf," said Palmer after the victory, "that it's too bad that my putting has gone to pot. I used 34 putts to make the round yesterday. Maybe a rest will help."

Player still is the leading money-winner of the year with $18,702 to his credit against $17,100 for Palmer.

In third place stands Jack Nicklaus, the National Open champion, who finished third here yesterday, only two shots out of first place. He had a final round of 71 for 275. He collected $2,200 for that and has won $13,865 this year.

Yesterday Palmer had a one stroke lead going into the final round that had been delayed two days by rains. Nicklaus and Player trailed by a stroke. But after nine holes Arnie was there shots in front of the field.

Then Player put on a drive, shooting birdies on the 10th and 11th holes, the latter with a 40-foot chip shot into the cup. When Arnie bogied the 14th hole, they were all even.

But Palmer birdied the 16th and went ahead to stay. Gary had a chance to tie it on the 18th by sinking a five-foot putt. But he was thrown off stride when a member of his threesome, Don January, vainly waited five minutes for a putt to drop while Player fidgeted waiting for his turn to putt. He missed and wound up second again.

LONG WAIT—Gary Player and Don January (left) take a close look at a putt resting on the lip of the cup at the final hole of the $35,000 Phoenix Open Golf Tournament. January waited seven minutes in hope his ball would decide to roll in, but it didn't. Unnerved by the long wait, Player then missed a four-foot putt which would have given him a birdie and a tie with Arnold Palmer who won the tournament with a 273.

Vaulters Will Start At 15 Feet

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Pole vaulters at the Golden Gate Invitational indoor track meet Friday will have to start jumping at 15 feet and move up 6 inches at a time—all because of the broadjumpers.

Red-faced meet officials said Tuesday the vault will have to end in less than 2 hours—4 hours is average at many meets—so that the broadjumpers can use the vaulting runway for their competition.

If the brave planning succeeds, it could be the fastest major meet vaulting in years. But why the unusual scheduling?

It seems that the broad jump runway was left behind in Portland, Ore., when the rest of the board track and accessories were loaded on a truck.

The rest of the boards, meanwhile, headed for California via Walla Walla, Wash., due to an obscure conflict in state trucking laws, apparently survived an overloading infraction at one point and at last word were still plying through the rain toward San Francisco's Cow Palace.

In a further move against the often-slow vaulters, officials say no more than two minutes will be permitted between leaps. The 15-foot, 15-6, 16-0 progression is far steeper than the normal 14-6, 14-8, 15-0, 15-4, 15-8, 16-0 formula.

Three 16-footers are in the field—C. K. Yang of UCLA, Ron Morris of the Southern California Striders and Brian Sternberg of Washington.

An unusual feature of the meet will be a 25-yard dash matching hurdler Hayes Jones and broad jumper Ralph Boston against Herb Carper, Roscoe Cook and the rest of the sprinters.

Carper and Cook are coholders of the indoor 60-yard dash record of 6.0 seconds, but Jones and Boston claim they're as fast as anyone out of the blocks.

POLITE HOODS ROB HUSTLING HUGH'S STORE

SANTA CLARA (AP)—Hustling Hugh McElhenny, the National Football League halfback who now plays for the Minnesota Vikings, got hustled last night. It cost him $80 although he wasn't even there.

The indirect touch came when two young hoods robbed his super market located in a Santa Clara shopping center.

"They were so polite," a clerk said, "an incoming customer even held the door for them as they went out."

Bidding Reopened For 1968 Olympic Games; Maybe L.A.

NEW YORK (AP) — Two of the nation's huge metropolises, Detroit and Los Angeles, have fired the opening salvos in an Olympic skirmish that shapes up as a minor league version of the Civil War.

At stake is which American city will get the right to bid for the 1968 Olympic Games.

The matter apparently had been settled for months ago when the U. S. Olympic Committee's Board of Directors—in a meeting in Chicago—designated Detroit as America's choice to bid for the games. Los Angeles, San Francisco, Philadelphia and Portland had been the other contenders.

In a surprise development yesterday, the executive committee of the USOC directors declared the bidding re-opened on an appeal by Los Angeles. Detroit backers immediately started hurling angry words at California. The California people weren't hurling angry words back, but their spokesmen made it clear they thought the USCO had made a wise move.

The reasoning behind the re-opening was that the full board of directors had not had a chance to look into the presentations of the five bidding cities at Chicago but had gone one the recommendations of a special committee. Now the entire board will evaluate the presentations here on March 18 and 19.

The final selection of a site for the 1968 games will be made by the International Olympic Committee at a meeting at Nairobi, Kenya, on Oct. 13. Indications are the choice will be a European city, with Lyons, France and Lausanne, Switzerland, the current favorites. Other foreign points bidding include Paris, Vienna, Mexico City and Buenos Aires.

The 1964 Olympics are set for Tokyo.

Athough Monday's action by the USOC re-opens the cases for all five interested cities in the United States, and Mayor George Christopher of San Francisco has declared his city back in the running, insiders say the issue will resolve into a contest between Detroit and Los Angeles.

Warriors, Pistons Go Tonight

The San Francisco Warriors will try to cancel yesterday's 120-115 loss to the Detroit Pistons when the two National Basketball Assn. teams in the Cow Palace tonight at 8 o'clock.

The Warriors will be trying to pull back within a half game of third place in the NBA's Western Division. That would earn them a spot in post-season playoffs.

Detroit pulled away in the third period on the hot shooting of Don Ohl and Bob Ferry and in the final quarter behind Bailey Howell to whip the Warriors yesterday. San Francisco led at halftime 63-62 but fell back 82-71 in the third period.

A nine-point binge gave San Francisco a 100-99 lead early in the fourth period but then Howell racked up eight points and Detroit shot to a 118-107 edge.

Wilt Chamberlain picked off 32 rebounds, including 15 in the fourth stanza, and added 46 points for San Francisco.

St. Mary's '5' Nips Broncos In Big Game

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

St. Mary's has won round one of the three-cornered brawl for the West Coast Athletic Conference basketball title.

The Gaels pulled out a 72-65 decision over tough Santa Clara last night at San Jose as brilliant Steve Gray got some unexpected help from guard Joe Lee.

Santa Clara rolled up a 36-29 half time bulge but melted in the second half in the face of a furious full-court press by the Gaels.

Lee had 21 and Gray, the league's outstanding scorer, added 20. Russ Vrankovich had 14 for the Broncs.

St. Mary's emerged with a 5-0 record and Santa Clara 4-1. The Gaels meet USF (also 5-0) Saturday night and all three teams will play one another a second time later this season.

In other action last night, Occidental grabbed undisputed first place in the SCIAC with a 75-45 romp over Pomona. Larry Edwards had 22 points.

Oxy now has a 6-1 mark and Whittier is 5-1.

Sacramento State upset Nevada 75-73 in double overtime as John Dille hit 29 for the Hornets. It broke an eight-game Sacramento losing streak but Dille has been injured most of the time.

Stu Johnson had 26 for Nevada, now 4-2 in Far West Conference Play.

San Francisco State leads the loop with a 6-0 mark and should go all the way if it can win at Nevada this Friday.

Independent Portland used its reserves liberally in rolling to an easy 67-56 victory over Portland State. Dave Cooper led a well-balanced Portland attack with 18 points.

Seals Meet Blades At Los Angeles

By U. P. INTERNATIONAL

Vancouver was a step closer to Northern Division leader Seattle today, thanks to an assist from the hapless Calgary club.

Vancouver humbled the Stampeders 8-2 at Calgary last night in the only Western Hockey League action.

The win put Vancouver over .500 for the year and moved the club to within four points of Seattle.

The Vancoucer front line had a big night. Bob McCusker hit two goals and two assists. Dave Duke added a goal and three assists and Bob Kabel had a goal and two assists.

San Francisco, trailing Portland by only three points, tries to narrow the gap to a single point tonight when it goes against tough Los Angeles at the Sports Arena. Vancouver hopes to cut its margin behind Seattle to two points at Edmonton in another WHI battle tonight.

McKinley To Defend His Tennis Title

NEW YORK (AP) — Chuck McKinley, on a court made to order for his attacking style, opens a drive tonight to defend his national indoor tennis championship and take over No. 1 world ranking.

The stocky, power-hitting American hopes to surplant Australia's Rod Laver, now a pro, in the top spot.

Roy Emerson, Laver's Davis Cup mate, has the same ambitions. He heads the foreign seedings in the indoor, played on the fast boards of the 7th Regmient Armory.

McKinley, from St. Ann, Mo., demolished Laver last year, 6-0, 6-0, 6-4, in the indoor semi-finals and beat Whitney Reed in the final.

McKinley opens play tonight against John Sharpe of Australia. Emerson meets Bill Scarlet of Cedar Grove, N. J.

Play continues tomorrow and Friday nights, with the semi-finals Saturday afternoon and the finals Sunday afternoon.

Fullmer Due To Arrive Today For Tiger Bout

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (UPI) — Dethroned middleweight champion Gene Fullmer was scheduled to arrive today and begin preparations for the Feb. 23 title bout against champion Dick Tiger.

Tiger held his first full-scale workout yesterday at the El Cortez Hotel. He boxed three rounds with Willie Turner of Fresno, and did nine rounds of calisthenics.

Trainer Jimmy August said Tiger weighed 162½ pounds, and would have no trouble in making the 160-pound weight.

Fullmer was dethroned by Tiger last October at Candlestick Park in San Francisco. He will start training tomorrow.

Spencer Stays As Raider Line Coach

OAKLAND (AP) — Al Davis, new head coach and general manager of the American Football League's Oakland Raiders, said today he is retaining Ollie Spencer as line coach.

Spencer, 31, a coaching rookie with Oakland last year, spent five years with Detroit and two with Green Bay as a National Football League offensive tackle. He was graduated from Kansas.

Tar Quintet Nips Santa Rosa 68-67

The College of Marin basketball team overcame a 14-point deficit last night and went on to nip Santa Rosa Junior College 68-67 on the Bear Cubs floor.

With the win the Tars pulled up to second place, one-half game behind league-leading Shasta College. The Tars have a 5-2 record, compared to 4-2 for Santa Rosa and 5-1 for Shasta.

Biggest shot in the arm for the Tar cagers last night was the return of Dave Neumann to the active list. Neumann had earlier been ruled out for the season because of an injured back, but he turned up with a doctor's OK to participate again and scored 13 points last night.

The Tars were trailing by 14 points part-way in the first half and pulled up within a point by the end of the half which saw the scoreboard read 35-34, the Santa Rosans in front.

TAR RALLY

At one time in the second half the Tars were behind by eight points but spurted out to lead by five in the closing minutes. Santa Rosa whittled away at the lead and with only 10 seconds left, missed a shot which would have given it the win. The Tars rebounded the ball and held on until the final horn sounded.

High man for the Mariners last night was Charlie Bullock with 20 points. Newcomer Brad Busch was credited by coach Cal Riemcke with a fine game, both in scoring and rebounding. Busch, who played the entire second half, scored 10 points.

College of Marin scorers: Charlie Bullock, 6-8-20; Pete Bardea, 1-3-5; Steve Bryant, 5-2-12; Mike Kavanagh, 0-2-2; Randy Petrini, 2-2-6; Brad Busch, 4-2-10; Dave Neumann, 6-1-13. Totals 24-20—68.

FIGHTS LAST NIGHT

MORE SIGNINGS

Larsen, Pagan Agree To S.F. Giant Terms

COMBINED A. P & U.P.I

Relief specialist Don Larsen and shortstop Jose Pagan have come to terms with the San Francisco Giants.

The signing of the two men means 33 Giants have inked pacts.

The Giants said yesterday Pagan telephoned from his home in San Juan, Puerto Rico, that he had signed a new contract.

The ironman infielder appeared in every game but one last season. He hit seven regular season homers, drove in 57 runs, and hit .259. He also led senior loop shortstops with a .973 fielding average.

He appeared in 49 games for the National League champions in 1962. He won 5 lost 4 and recorded 6 saves. His earned run average was 4.38.

New York Yankee signees included Tom Tresh, American League Rookie of the Year, Joe Pepitone, Stan Williams, Marshall Bridges, Jim Coates, Hal Stowe, Jim Bronstad and Bob Meyer.

Other players agreeing to terms yesterday were:

Third baseman Gene Freeze and pitcher John Flavin of the Cincinnati Reds; outfielders Don Demeter and John Herrnstein and infielder Danny Cater of the Philadelphia Phils and pitchers Jack Kralick and Ray Moore of the Minnesota Twins.

Also pitchers Harry Fanok and Harvey Branch and outfielders Gary Kolb, Doug Clemens and Jan Firek of the St. Louis Cardinals; pitchers Arnold Earley, Hal Kolstad, Stew MacDonald, Chet Nichols, Merlin Nippert and Bill Spanswick, catcher Russ Nixon, infielders Billy Gardner, Bob Guindon, Rico Petracelli, Jim Russin, Dick Williams and outfielders Jim Gosger and Pete Jernigan of the Boston Red Sox, and second baseman Dick Kenworthy, catcher Jerry McNertney, pitcher Mike Degerick and pitcher outfielder Manly Johnson of the Chicago White Sox.

Women's Bowling Leaders

Lu Sharp of Mill Valley took the all-events lead over the weekend in the Marin County Women's Bowling Assn. third annual championships at Country Club Bowl, San Rafael, statistics showed yesterday.

For nine games—three each in singles, doubles and team competition—Mrs. Sharp scored 1574 pins and with a handicap of 198 totalled 1772 in the opening weekend of the tournament which concludes next Saturday and Sunday.

Jeanne Gaffney, also of Mill Valley, was second in the all events with 1760 total pins.

Nena Hudon of Hamilton Air Force Base took the early lead in singles competition with a 610 total which included a 490 scratch series and 120 handicap. Sharon Miller is second at 609.

Barbara Ward of Novato and Sharon Miller of Corte Madera hold the lead in doubles with 1074 scratch, 138 handicap and 1212 total.

Best scratch series and game in the opening weekend were turned in by Vivian Gray of San Rafael who fired a 600 three-game set including a 236 solo in team competition. She still has more bowling to do next weekend and is rated among the favorites.

Team Event—Marin Medical Exchange, 2433-438—2871; Brice Bros. Mkts., 2487-378—2865; Wilsons Texaco - Novato, 2326-528—2854; The Earthquake McGoons, 2029-792—2821; Yankee Kennels, 2151-666—2817.

Youth Tennis Award To Be Made Friday

The first annual presentation of the "Roscoe W. Maples Youth Tennis Service Award" will be presented at the annual meeting of the Youth Tennis Foundation of Northern California Friday at Hotel Mark Hopkins, San Francisco.

More than 55,000 boys and girls have learned their basic tennis strokes since the inception of the foundation, according to Bernard T. Rocca Sr., foundation president. A nonprofit education group, the foundation offers tennis lessons to children 8 through 16 years on the public playgrounds in Northern California communities.

The fourth annual report luncheon will feature a tennis style show, commentated by the famed Gussie Moran, and featuring her new line of clothing for the active gal.

Maples, long-time friend of tennis, was a founding member of the Youth Tennis Foundation. During his lifetime Maples befriended many a deserving and needy child, and it is in his memory the award will be presented.

Russell Official Rebound Champ In Pro Circuit

NEW YORK (AP) — Officially, Bill Russell of the champion Boston Celtics ousted Dolph Schayes of the Syracuse Nationals as the all-time rebound leader in the National Basketball Assn. last week with a career total of 11,041 to 11,005.

Unofficially the veteran Schayes, now in his 15th NBA season, still leads. Why? Because no rebound records were kept in Schayes' first two seasons—1948-49 and 1949-50. All of Russell's grabs have been officially recorded. He is in his seventh season with the NBA.

League statistics released today show Russell still second in rebounds for the current season with an average of 23.5 per game to 24.1 for Wilt Chamberlain of San Francisco. Chamberlain, now in his fourth NBA season, has a career total of 7,586 rebounds.

Wright Continues To Dominate Golf

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP)—Mickey Wright, a young long ball hitter from Dallas, continues her domination of women's professional golf.

Miss Wright, who won 10 out of 29 tournaments last year, picked up her second victory out of three tournaments this season yesterday with a 69 and an overwhelming nine-stroke victory over Marilyn Smith of Tequesta, Fla., in their playoff for the St. Petersburg Women's Open title.

HIGHER, FURTHER, FASTER

Nothing Seems Impossible In Track, Field These Days

By ED CORRIGAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—The days of the "impossible" of track and field are gone. Nothing is impossible today.

The jumpers go higher and further and the runners go faster and faster. An athlete or coach of 20 years ago would not have believed such feats were possible.

No, practically everyone thinks he can be the highest, farthest or fastest.

Less than 10 years ago, in 1954, Brutus Hamilton of California issued a list of possible greatest records. He didn't pick the mile, but he selected 3:41.8 for the 1,500 meters, the metric mile.

There is about 17 seconds difference between the two, so the mile would be projected to 3:58.8. Peter Snell already has pushed it down to 3:54.4, and no miler worth his salt would admit he couldn't go under 3:58.8.

Here then, are a set of predictions of how high, far and fast the athletes will go in the foreseeable future:

High jump: 7-9½

Mile: 3:38

Pole vault: 17-10 (the fiberglass offers unliminted opportunities).

Shotput: 71 feet (Dallas Long of United States holds the current record of 65-10½).

Hamilton AFB Bowler Dominates Scoring Columns At Nave Lanes

Red-hot Bob MacEachern of Hamilton Air Force Base continued to burn up league bowling at Nave Lanes last week by rolling the two best series plus the high game of the week.

His 691 three-gamer (201, 234, 256) was the best series of the year at Nave Lanes. He also rolled a 623 to place runnerup to himself. Dick Treadway's 620 with a 231 solo held up as third best series.

Jim Hanley and Rick Figliolino each rolled a 235 to follow MacEachern's 256 as top games of the week.

Emily Smith led the Nave women with a 569 total that featured a 223, high game of the week. Val McCutcheon hit a 566—209 effort followed by Vivian Gray's 558—217.

In the junior leagues, Mike Perez was kingpin with a 772 four-game series, featuring lines of 234 and 210. Frank Perachiotti had a 745 with a 205 solo.

The week's highlights at Nave Lanes:

USC's Beathard Athlete Of Month

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Quarterback Pete Beathard, who threw four touchdown passes for a Rose Bowl record in the University of Southern California's 42-37 victory over Wisconsin, today was named "Athlete of the Month" for January by the Helms Hall Board.

The 191-pound junior from El Segundo completed eight of 12 passes for 190 yards, another Rose Bowl record.

Hurricane Kid Loses 1st Bout In 21 Fights

HONOLULU (AP) — Charlie Austin of Phoenix, Ariz., decisioned Hurricane Kid last night in a 10-round main event boxing match. It was the Kid's first loss in 21 matches.

Both fighters weighed in at 157, and the Kid, a Samoan from San Francisco, had only one draw against his record going into the match. Austin dropped the Kid with a straight right for an eight-count in the fifth round.

Group All Set To Launch Concert Series Friday At Marin College

Soprano Carole Bogard, baritone Edgar Jones and the Bach to Mozart Players will launch College of Marin's spring concert and lecture series with a performance of Bach and Scarlatti cantatas at 8 p.m. Friday in Olney Hall.

The concert is open to the public. Free tickets may be obtained at the college bookstore from 8 a.m. to 3 p.m. and at the adult education office from 6:30 to 10 p.m.

The program includes Bach's Cantata No. 56; Scarlatti's Cantata "Su le sponde del tebro" and Bach's Cantata No. 32.

The eight-piece chamber ensemble is directed by oboist Raymond Duste and includes, in addition to Duste, Edward Haug, trumpet; Everett O'Bannon, and Michael Gerling, violins; Elizabeth Bell, viola; Sally Kell, cello, Milton Nadell, bass; and Roy Bogas, harpsichord. All except Miss Kell and Bogas are members of the San Francisco Symphony Orchestra.

Bogas was laureate winner of the 1962 International Tchaikovsky Piano Competition in Moscow, and has been hailed in Moscow as the "successor" to Van Cliburn.

Miss Bogard, a frequent soloist with the San Francisco and Oakland Symphonies, last performed at College of Marin on Jan. 19 with the college's community chorus.

Strep Infections Reported To County

The Marin County Health Department received reports of 25 streptococcic infections last week, the highest number of cases of any communicable disease covered by the weekly report.

Other reported infections were four gonorrhea, five measles, six mumps, three syphilis, and one tuberculbosis.

Greenbrae Unit To Hear Talk On Spain

A talk and a movie on Spain and nomination and election of officers will be features of the annual membership meeting of the Greenbrae Property Owners Assn. in Greenbrae School at 7 p.m. tomorrow.

Frank Beckman, world traveler who formerly lived in Greenbrae and now resides in Marinwood, will speak about his travels in Spain. A Pan American World Airways film, "Castles in Spain," will be shown.

Victor Donatti, chairman of the group's nominating committee, will announce nominees for director. Nominations from the floor then will be invited.

Those nominated by the committee are: Mel Riccardi, William G. Fleckes, and Donatti, all presently on the board, and Aaron Horstmeyer, Mrs. Eugene B. Cates, Peter Gottheiner, Irving Ritter, Mrs. Raymond Wold and Barry Newman.

Band For Luau

The Moitoza Hawaiian Band of Mill Valley, rather than the Louis Malvino Band as previously announced, will play for the Corte Madera Lions Club's "South Pacific Luau" dinner dance at 7:30 p.m. Saturday in the town recreation center, program director Will Taylor announced today.

Poll In Marin Finds Most Against All-Digit Dialing

Marinites polled by the Anti-Digit Dialing League prefer letter prefixes to all-digit telephone numbers by five-to-one.

The league, which has headquarters in San Francisco, announced results of its poll today.

Only 510 telephone users in Marin were questioned in the poll, which was conducted by four psychologists.

Of them, 345 said they preferred letter prefixes, 67 preferred all-digit dialing, and 98 had no preference, the league announced.

Of those objecting to all-digit dialing, reason for objection most often was that the seven-number series is more difficult to remember. Second criticism, said Neil Davis, Marin County chairman of the league, was that all-digit dialing deprives the phone user of geographic reference.

The poll was taken by Dr. Jane Hardyck of the survey research center at University of California; Curt Hardyck of the U.C. School of Medicine; Dr. Jeanne Block, research psychologist at Children's Hospital of the East Bay, and Jack Block of the psychology department of U.C. in Berkeley.

The Anti-Digit Dialing League has filed a complaint with the California Public Utilities Commission demanding return throughout California of of letter prefixes in telephone numbers. A pre-hearing on the case will be held by the PUC March 11 at 10 a.m. in the State Building in San Francisco.

Homemaking Grant At Drake

A $150 grant from the Sears-Roebuck Foundation has given a financial boost to the homemaking department at Sir Francis Drake High School.

The school's second year homemaking classes recently received the money to redecorate and refurnish the department's living area. The project will include the participation of shop classes, who will make planters designed by the homemaking classes. Art classes will help decorate the room.

5 Students Heading For Food Conference

Five Marin County high schools and one college will send representatives to the fourth annual "Food comes first for youth power" conference this weekend at Asilomar.

The Marin County Farm Bureau will furnish transportation for the young people. During the conference, which starts Friday and ends Sunday, representatives of the food industry will pay for the food and housing of more than 200 students from throughout the state.

General subjects to be discussed include: "Food and You," "Nutrition and Physical Fitness," and "Is There a Food Career in Your Future?"

Those going from Marin are: Tamalpais High School, Stephanie Wickham of Mill Valley and Beth McCammon of Stinson Beach; San Rafael High School, Sharon Woelz and Mary E. Dahl; Marin Catholic, Mary Lou Lally of Fairfax; Novato, Norman Sanford; Tomales, Judi Cherrigan of Inverness and Bob Burban of Tomales; Dominican College, Coleen Buxton of Mendocino County.

Cooks Misspell

"Why can't Johnny spell as well as children once could?" ask the critics of modern methods of teaching children the three R's.

Well, maybe years back Johnny could spell. But we're mighty sure his sister Janie had a hard time at spelling bees.

Our conclusion is based on the Janies, grown to woman's estate, who contributed to and compiled cook books in our grandmothers' day.

Misspelled: To Scollop.

The phrase is to scallop, and according to Webster it means to bake a food with buttered crumbs or in a sauce topped with crumbs. Originally such a dish was baked in scallop shells, hence the name.

Misspelled: Neopolitan.

THE WORD is Neapolitan and it means of or pertaining to Naples, Italy. Neapolitan cakes and ice cream, with their dashing layers of different flavors and colors were once in high style.

Misspelled: Annis.

The word is Anise, and it's an herb with a sweet aromatic flavor. Aniseed, the fruit or seeds of anise, is sometimes sprinkled over cookies and sweet breads before baking.

MISSPELLED: Rollard.

The word is French and it's roulade. According to Larousse Gastronomique, a roulade is a thin slice of meat—usually veal or pork—rolled around forcemeat. In present-day American cooking, the roulade idea is sometimes used with beef and the result called birds, rollups or rolls. Here's our version of such a recipe. It's good, no matter how its name is spelled!

VEGETABLE-STUFFED BEEF ROLLS

- 1¾ pounds round steak
- Flour and salt and pepper
- 6 teaspoons prepared mustard
- 1 rib celery (halved crosswise and cut into 6 strips)
- 1 carrot (halved crosswise and cut into 18 strips)
- 2 large scallions (root ends and a little of green top removed)
- ¼ cup butter or margarine
- 1 can (12 ounces) vegetable cocktail juice
- 1 can (6 ounces) sliced mushrooms

Have steak cut into 6 portions and flattened with a cleaver so each is about 5 by 4 inches and between ¼ and ½ inch thick. Mix together ¼ cup flour, 1 teaspoon salt and ¼ teaspoon pepper. With a very heavy saucer, pound seasoned flour into both sides of meat so as to break meat fibers and flatten to about ¼ inch. Spread 1 teaspoon of the mustard over top side of each piece of meat. Over mustard on each piece place 1 celery strip, 3 carrot strips and 2 scallions with green tops protruding; roll up and secure with toothpicks.

IN A LARGE skillet heat the butter and brown meat rolls on all sides. Add ¼ cup of the vegetable juice; bring to a boil; cover and simmer, adding ¼ cup vegetable juice twice more at 15 minute intervals. Continue simmering until meat is tender—about 1 hour and 15 minutes. Remove rolls; keep warm. Stir 1½ tablespoons flour into skillet. To remaining vegetable juice add liquid drained from mushrooms plus stock or water to make 1½ cups; add to skillet. Cook over low heat, stirring constantly with wooden spoon to get up brown particles, until thickened; strain. Add drained mushrooms to sauce and reheat, seasoning to taste, or with ½ teaspoon sugar and 1 teaspoon instant minced onion. Serve sauce over meat rolls. Makes 6 servings.

Instant Dressing

Give luscious home-grown tomatoes and cucumbers a sophisticated touch with this salad dressing. Combine instant minced onion, wine vinegar, salad oil, mixed herbs and parsley flakes. Pour over sliced tomatoes and cucumbers. Sprinkle with capers and chopped hard-cooked egg.

Barbecue Chicken Over Orange Rice

It takes a unique recipe such as this for Chicken Avocado in Orange Sauce to make even an amateur chef look good. And that's exactly what it did for its author, Derwood Bammann of Beecher, Ill. Cooking is only a hobby with him but once he had concocted this marvelous dish, he entered it in a popular Cook-Off contest and went on to win a handsome prize with it.

You will note the judicious use of curry and chili powder that adds an exotic touch to the golden crisp crust on the chicken, while tangy orange juice and rind flavors the sauce and the colorful bed of rice it is served on.

CHICKEN AVOCADO IN ORANGE SAUCE

- ⅓ cup flour
- 1½ teaspoon salt
- ¼ teaspoon pepper
- ¾ teaspoon curry powder
- 1 teaspoon chili powder
- 1 (2-lb.) chicken, cut-up
- ¼ cup butter or margarine, melted
- 1 medium orange, sliced
- 1 ripe avocado, peeled and sliced

Quilted cooking foil (broiling)

Put flour, salt, pepper, curry powder and chili powder in paper bag. Dip chicken pieces in melted butter and coat with flour by shaking in bag. Broil chicken 4 inches from heat 30 minutes or until meat pulls away from bones. Baste with butter and turn occasionally.

ORANGE RICE

- 1⅓ cups precooked rice
- 1¾ cups water
- 2 cups orange juice
- 1 tablespoon grated orange rind
- 1 cup pecan halves

Makes two foil pans with double thickness of broiling foil by turning up edges and mitering corners.

Place rice and water in one pan and cover with foil, sealing edges. Bring to boil, remove from heat and let stand 5 minutes.

A New Recipe For Thrifty Ground Beef

There probably isn't a country in the world that doesn't have a special way of preparing economical ground beef.

In the Scandinavian cuisine, the meat is often made into balls. These are always light and soft affairs, an effect achieved by adding plenty of liquid to the meat mixture. That's what happens in the following recipe, and you'll find the undiluted evaporated milk called for contributes usefully to both the meat and the sauce.

In this particular recipe, tarragon is used as the seasoning that stands out. But if you do not want to use this herb, or haven't it in the house, don't hesitate to add a seasoning of your own choice.

MEAT BALLS WITH MUSHROOM SAUCE

- 1 pound ground chuck beef
- ¼ cup fine dry bread crumbs
- ½ cup finely chopped onion
- 1½ teaspoons salt
- Pepper to taste
- 1 tall can (1⅔ cups) evaporated milk
- 2 tablespoons butter or margarine
- 1½ cups sliced mushrooms (about ¼ pound)
- ¾ cup small onion rings
- 2 beef bouillon cubes dissolved in 1⅔ cups boiling water
- ¼ to ½ teaspoon dried crumbled tarragon
- ⅓ cup flour
- ⅓ cup parsley sprigs

Mix together the beef, bread crumbs, onion, 1 teaspoon of the salt and pepper to taste. Mix in thoroughly ⅔ cup of the evaporated milk. Chill. Shape meat mixture into 12 balls using a scant ¼ cup for each. Melt butter in a large skillet over medium heat. Add meat balls; brown on all sides turning occasionally. Push browned meat balls to side of skillet. Add mushrooms and onion rings; cook until onions are golden, stirring occasionally.

MIX THE meat and vegetables gently and add bouillon and tarragon. Bring to a boil over medium heat; cover tightly and simmer 15 minutes. Remove from heat. Sprinkle in the flour, a little at a time, stirring to blend; add the remaining ½ teaspoon salt and pepper to taste. Gradually stir in the remaining 1 cup evaporated milk. Return to low heat and cook uncovered, stirring occasionally, until thickened—about 5 minutes. Stir in parsley. Makes 6 servings.

Note: Instead of fresh mushrooms, two cans (4 to 6 ounces each) of sliced mushrooms may be used. The canned mushroom liquid may be used in place of the boiling water for dissolving the bouillon cubes.

Storing Leftovers

When planning to use the remainder of a roast in a second-day dish, make sure that the meat is well wrapped or placed in a tightly covered container to retain the moisture.

MARIN BUSINESS And INDUSTRY

By HARRY CRAFT

Businessman Says Marin Should Try For More 'Think Industries'

Observation from one out of town businessman: "Why don't you in Marin forget about building up your manufacturing? It seems to me you spend too much time trying to sell what you haven't got and not enough thought on selling the things you have.

"Your county simply isn't suitable for manufacturing compared to other parts of the Bay Area. One suggestion: Try to capture some of the new 'think industry'—corporations who set up special centers in pleasant, quiet places AWAY from the rest of their business, where selected personnel does nothing but work out ideas for the future."

MULTIPLE LISTED real estate sales in Marin for January totaled $3,816,900—up 32 per cent in dollar volume from January, 1962; about 16 per cent higher in number of sales. As real estate board manager Dan Deedy claimed, the showing was more like one for the balmy months of June and July.

MULTIPLE RENTAL UNITS aren't doing so badly either. L. B. Fleischman who built nine triplex buildings on Piper Court, Fairfax, last year, rented the first 14 units in November and the balance last month (most of them through two small ads in the I-J). He now has a waiting list.

FOUR MONTHS OLD "Atkisson Associates Advertising and," of Sausalito has selected another name—shorter but still with a dangling ampersand. It's now called "ABCD Advertising &." Letters are taken from the names of principals Barbara Atkisson and Don Christenson. Mildred Howie and Mary Ann Kurz are associates, and Blanche Whittey who heads Central Business Services in San Francisco is a new addition. She'll specialize in Marin retail and personal accounts. New office is at 3030 Bridgeway.

HUGH JAMES of Mill Valley and Mrs. Dorathea Wood Kiff of San Anselmo have become participating members of Wrathall and Krusi, Inc., San Francisco firm dealing in electrical equipment sales to utility and industrial firms. James will serve as vice president; Mrs. Kiff has been re-elected secretary-treasurer. Both are members of the board of directors.

WILLIAM C. BENTINCK of Kent Woodlands has joined the staff of Lewis Realty in Kentfield. He was previously vice president of Pearson Yacht Corp., Sausalito . . . Joseph W. Burton, Sausalito civil engineer, has opened offices at 1306 Bridgeway . . . Howard M. Morse of Terra Linda has qualified for membership in National Life Assurance Co. of Canada's top producers' President's Club. . .

RALPH MONOOGAN, salesman for Larry Brink Motors, Mill Valley, and his wife were feted in Vancouver and Victoria, B.C., recently by American Motors. Monoogan was one of the top Rambler salesmen in the nation for 1962 . . . Mercury Marauder and the Marauder S-55—two new hardtop models with fast-back rooflines and high-performance engine options—will be available as mid-year additions to the Mercury line in early March. They'll be sold in Marin at E. Bugna Motors, San Rafael, and Larry Brink Motors, Mill Valley.

California was the first state in the Union to organize a tuna research program of tagging fish to study diseases, migrations and mating habits.

Bold Thief Gets Purse And Wallet

A bold thief prowled through the Briesh Auto Top Shop and living quarters yesterday and stole a purse and a wallet while the owner was opening his shop and his wife was asleep in the bedroom.

Adolph Briesh, who owns the shop at 1 Bellam Boulevard, said his wallet contained about $5 and his wife's purse, about $60 to $70.

Briesh said the thief must have slipped inside when he opened the shop door at 8:15 a.m. Mrs. Briesh's purse was taken from the dresser drawer in the bedroom where Mrs. Briesh was still sleeping.

She got up about 9 a.m. to find the drawer open and her purse missing. The wallet was taken from Briesh's trousers hanging in the living room.

Cause Of Heart Attack, Stroke

(This is the first of a series of articles presented by the Marin County Heart Assn. about progress being made in the fight against heart and circulatory disease.)

Heart attack and stroke—today's leading cripplers and killers—are not diseases at all but rather sudden and dramatic events.

The former is estimated to take 490,000 lives yearly, the latter 190,000. The stage is set for these events by a disease called atherosclerosis, known more commonly to laymen as "hardening of the arteries." What happens invites a comparison with the slow build-up of lime inside a water pipe.

With household plumbing, lime deposits can gradually narrow and roughen the bore of the pipe until the flow of water is reduced to a mere trickle. Complete blockage may ensue if a sliver of lime breaks off and wedges itself in the narrowed passageway, or if it forms elsewhere and is transported by the flow of water to the site.

While the analogy is imperfect, something very much like this occurs inside human arteries of the heart or the brain to foreshadow either of these dreaded events, with fatty-like substances including cholesterol infiltrating the inner linings of these all-important passageways.

In heart attack, a coronary artery is blocked, denying to a portion of the heart muscle its quota of oxygenated blood. If the affected area is large or strategically located, death may be the result. But in a majority of cases, the victim recovers and eventually resumes a normal and productive life.

In stroke, a defective artery servicing a portion of the brain is blocked. Or perhaps a rupture occurs. Minor or major disability, or even death, may be the outcome of a stroke.

It is important to remember that the real villain behind most heart attacks and strokes is atherosclerosis, which, not long ago, was thought to be an inevitable part of the aging process. This theory no longer holds. There is mounting evidence that the atherosclerotic process is neither inevitable nor necessarily irreversible.

Just 15 years ago a relatively small group of heart specialists decided that heart and blood vessel diseases were too great a threat to the nation's health to be handled without the help of the American people. They transformed their professional society, the American Heart Assn., into a voluntary health agency supported by contributions. An energetic program of research, community service and education got under way.

As a result, new knowledge has been acquired and put to work.

Dr. Paul Dudley White, the eminent heart specialist, has said, "There is no reason to doubt that we can protect our young and middle-aged males by diet, exercise, medicine and other measures from the ever-increasing threat of coronary diseases, provided we support to the full medical and other scientific investigators working hard on this disease entity."

Right-To-Work Law

CHEYENNE, Wyo. (UPI) — Wyoming became the nation's 20th right to work state last week when Gov. Clifford P. Hansen, a Republican, signed into law a bill which bans union shop agreements. Hansen signed the measure last Friday, only a day after it cleared the house of representatives.

We Hope Governor Meant What He Said For Him Too

Gov. Edmund G. Brown appeared before the California Newspaper Publishers Association convention last weekend with a plea to "help me improve the communications between government and the press; between government and the public."

"We need, want and invite more press coverage, not less," the governor told the publishers. "We aren't asking you to handle the public issues with kid gloves. We are just asking you to handle them, and to give the public a better, balanced view of the full spectrum of public affairs."

In the state which leads the nation, "we must make continuing progress and in doing so, we must come to grips with complex issues," the governor declared. "Automatic, stereotyped reactions are inadequate when you are dealing with complex issues."

There probably was not a single man hearing him who did not endorse these points entirely. They would like to give more press coverage to government. They want to give the public a balanced view of public affairs. They want no automatic stereotype reactions.

And they want these things from government as well as from themselves.

They want less of the fiscal double-talk about how much money was "saved" by the administration when "saved" means not spending all of a bloated, record budget.

They want less complaint about, as the governor said, "the difficulties we face in seeking even the slightest control on billboard clutter," when they know the governor in 1961 vetoed the billboard regulation bill which Sen. John F. McCarthy had taken four years to work out.

Governor Brown invited "all of you to spend some time with me in personal briefing sessions in the months ahead. It is my hope that you will agree to visit Sacramento for discussions, and exchange of views, in the major areas of state government."

We hope the governor follows through on this general invitation and that the publishers and their editors respond in accepting it.

Perhaps the governor would learn that the publishers expect him to "give the public a better, balanced view" of public affairs. That "automatic, stereotyped reactions" are as unfortunate when they come from government under criticism as they are from anywhere else.

The governor opened his talk by telling the publishers that during the campaign "your news reporters and press photographers were fair to both candidates." As his talk went on, he showed he obviously didn't think that fairness extends past the campaign.

We're sorry he feels that way. We hope his proposed talks will be as beneficial to him as to the publishers he hopes to influence.

SEVERE SHORTAGE IN ETHIOPIA

Ethiopia has only 250 physicians to care for its population of 22,000,000. This means only one doctor for every 90,000 people.

Moreover, most of this small handful of physicians are foreigners, according to the Ministry of Public Health.

There is likewise a dire shortage of hospitals outside the capital, Addis Ababa. The country's total number of beds for in-patients is only 5,158, or approximately one for every 4,300.

Thank God for being blessed with the countless advantages of modern medicine. But keep ever aware, too, that vast numbers of persons over the earth—and some in our very midst—are deprived of the basic essentials of medical care.

Any effort you make to alleviate the desperate shortage of doctors and lack of facilities to care for the sick of the world will be imitating the example of the Master Who showed a tender solicitude for everyone afflicted in body and spirit.

"As long as you did it for one of these, the least of My brethren, you did it for Me." (Matthew 25:40)

Deepen in me, O Jesus, a compassion for suffering humanity.

HAL BOYLE'S COLUMN

U.S. Housewife One Of Best Financial Managers In World

The American housewife is one of the world's best financial managers. Although she handles 80 per cent of family expenditures, she spends only about $7 a week on herself.

Why those "good old days" went sour: A century ago the average man in this country worked 70 hours a week. Today he works from 39 to 40 hours—with time off for "coffee breaks."

In Paris, by calling certain numbers, you can get advice if you are lonely and despondent, a recipe if you don't know what to cook for dinner, or information about the atom bomb and nuclear physics. You can call a fourth number and your telephone will tell you a recorded joke, then emit wild yelps of canned laughter.

The best way to safeguard your car is to lock it. Nine times out of 10, car thieves prey on unlocked cars. About 90 per cent of stolen cars are eventually recovered; most of the others are dismantled or stripped by professional gangs.

A survey indicates that up to 50 per cent of the chronically unemployed are "functionally illiterate"—they can't read and write well enough to learn new skills.

EX-PRESIDENT Calvin Coolidge received $1 a word for articles written after he left the White House, but Ernest Hemingway is said to have been perhaps the world's highest paid author. In 1960 a magazine paid him $30,000 for a 2,000 word piece on bullfighting. That's $15 a word.

The American divorce rate is seven times what it was 100 years ago. In the last 20 years our illegitimacy and juvenile delinquency rates have nearly tripled.

ALL OUR clothing used to come from plants and animals. Now 11 of the 36 pounds of textile material each of us uses each year comes from laboratory-made materials.

It was Irvin S. Cobb who observed, "Learn all the rules, every one of them, so that you will know how to break them."

10 YEARS AGO

Engineer Clifford E. Paine told Golden Gate Bridge District directors that a $3,500,000 strengthening project could be carried on without interruption of traffic across the span.

The North Bay Barrier Assn., meeting in Petaluma, voted to continue its battle against construction of a high-level bridge between San Rafael and Richmond.

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

May I express my thanks to the fine civic minded people who have come forward to protect the disfiguration of San Pedro Road by the P.G & E. and P.T.&T. poles.

It is difficult to understand why in this day of progress these two companies haven't developed something less unsightly than these archaic poles.

San Pedro Road with its natural beauty can be developed into a scenic drive which would enhance the beauty of Marin County.

It is sad enough for us who love and enjoy Marin County to see our trees and hills disappearing.

We Should Applaud France

EDITOR,
Indepenedent-Journal:

Is not it amazing that each time there is a bit of dirt thrown at France, it finds a space on the front page of our newspapers?

True, we never here understood nor forgave France for her defeat, nor ever tried. We want to think the worst rather than the best, and even today, we seem to deplore France's reinstatement as a great nation, when we should applaud her magnificent comeback.

Why? Was France ever our enemy? When? It simply does not make sense to me, nor to anyone who knows and remembers our history.

Evidently, only those among us who know and love France have followed and trusted the French as a people to be admired for their will to survive all their adversities, are the only ones to rejoice and wish them God's speed. If ever anyone deserved credit for full duty accomplished, they do.

Let us be honest. By publishing the would-be insulting remarks of the Earl of Arran, we are just as petty and stupid as he was to write them. By insulting the President de Gaulle and calling Joan of Arc a witch, what has he gained? And for that matter, what do we benefit by reading such rot?

Surely the English are angry to find out that their too long supreme ruling over Europe has ended. After mistrusting the feasibiiity of the Common Market and Alliance between France and West Germany, now that it has proved effective and successful, they want their part of it, but with so many conditions, reservations and changes so as to once again take direction of the whole setup.

Failing this, they play at being victims of injustice. The sad part of it is, that we fall for their crocodile tears and feel sorry for them. Do not be fooled.

President de Gaulle may be a hard man to deal with, he knows what he is doing, he does not play favorites, nor can he be intimidated. He needs nor wants no interference or advice. We do not like it because we have developed a peculiar yearning for putting our nose into other nations' affairs, (with conditions also) we try to buy friendship to keep a foot in the doors. So far, it has caused more chaos than order, and more distrust than peace.

What Mr. de Gaulle has done is going to remain a fine page of history which may escape us today. He is all French, deeply so and I wish that we Americans, for a happy change, would plainly be ourselves too, without the counsel of England, the land surnamed: "the perfidious Albion."

How To Thank Hospital, Doctors

Independent-Journal:

I spent 5½ weeks in the San Rafael General Hospital. Had an operation for a broken right hip. I am in a walker now.

Would you give me some information on how I could put a piece in the Independent-Journal? You see I am a widow and will not be able work again, so I don't have much money. But I must find a way to put in the paper what a wonderful hospital this is. The wonderful doctors they have, and the care I got. Also wonderful meals.

Would you please let me know how I go about this. Thank you.

Grateful For Marin Blessings

EDITOR,

Just a little note to express my appreciation for the courtesy of our post office employees, we can certainly be very proud of them and of all our public enployees.

I am so truly grateful for the blessing of living in Marin County and raising our family in this beautiful community. It is such a joy to see so many happy faces wherever one goes.

Thank you, too, and all for this very fine newpaper.

I-J REPORTER'S NOTEBOOK

By RANDALL GOULD

Can't Be Too Young Or Too Old To Be In On Senior Citizen Plans

As a Senior Citizen I'm either too young or too old.

What's more, I'm uncoordinated and I want to stay that way.

So in the words of the immortal Sam Goldwyn, "include me out" on any and all stirring events that may come to pass as result of our county supervisors' decision to start recruiting for a Senior Citizens Program Coordinator.

Anyhow, I don't like that name. It's too short for what it's got to cover.

Let us dignify this exalted worthy, when once we catch him, with the title of Marin County Illustrious Supervisor of Fun, Flolic and General Boondoggling For the Benefit of Young and Old.

MAYBE YOU hadn't realized it, but beneficiaries under the proposed county program needn't at all be in the sere and yellow, like that slippered pantaloon Old Man Gould.

They can be of all ages from about three years upward, as I get it.

No less authority than County Counsel E. Warren McGuire has knocked the dust off his tomes and read out that a county program of this kind must be open to everybody, "regardless of age."

You needn't be a member of anything. It makes no difference whether you're one of these pale pink people sometimes called white, or one of the more interestingly colored races.

It makes no never mind about your creed and they might even squeeze in an agnostic or two.

THE COST OF ministering to this varied group of citizens will be moderate indeed by modern luxury standards, a mere $12,612 yearly at first but naturally bound to build up fast. Why put up with half a hog when you can go whole hog?

One reason I don't want to get involved in any Senior Citizens program as such is that I am so fascinated in noting how such things come to pass.

It took less than 15 minutes for the supervisors to vote 4-1, Bill Fusselman for some obscure reason dissenting, to get something started on Senior Citizens young and old come one come all and bring the kiddies.

In fact our supervisors were mighty weary by around 6 p.m. the day they got to this, so they didn't bother to have the clerk read all the tiresome details and complications dug up by their hired help. Other things had been a lot more interesting.

For instance, the high cost of digging holes to put trees into. That stirred quite a discussion with Bill Gnoss, as an expert hole-digger in his own right, telling Don Frost to find out how to cut the cost of hole digging and get cracking.

PETER BEHR LED off on what might have been a good debate about why should the supervisors sit through tiresome non-productive openings of bids. A waste of time, Behr called it.

But he got squashed like a bug. Chairman Walter Castro said all that had been discussed and found of no merit so why go into it again?

Gnoss said it made things more legal-like, and you just never know.

One vital piece of business that had the supervisors' eyes gleaming was when they found the grand jury favored boosting their pay $300, to $800 from a present $500. (And a couple of them just got off the $400 level.)

Unanimously and with no debate the board voted to tell the legislature that yes, $800 was better.

SUPERVISORS' PAY if set at $800 might attract a higher grade of men, and it looked to me as though each and every one of the present incumbents was ready to be a higher grade of man if he could get that higher grade of pay.

By the time we got around to consider the Senior Citizens, we were all pretty tired, and weary of good works. But just the same the fellows saw their duty and they did it—all but individualist Fusselman.

Like me, Bill may be too young or too old. But in our Marin County program that's hard to do.

Republicans Taking The Initiative In Real Civil Rights Legislation

While the Kennedy administration has been stymied and stalled, 10 Republican members of the House Judiciary Committee have moved to the front to introduce new comprehensive civil rights legislation at the opening of the present Congress.

The newly-elected chairman of the Senate Republican Campaign Committee, Sen. Thruston Morton of Kentucky, is acting to create a National Republican Advisory Forum. This will broaden the base of party policy by bringing leading Republican governors and mayors into close consultation with the party in Congress.

THERE WILL BE some in the party who will shrink from this show of energy and action. There will be those who believe they can win by blocking without carrying the ball. There will be those Republicans in Congress who want to hold the party in a tight little grip and keep the ascendant Republican governors and mayors at arm's length.

Fortunately, it isn't going to be that way. New forces put a hand on the steering wheel of the Republican Party when the GOP ball-carriers voted out the former chairman of the Republican Conference in the House and voted in the modern-minded Rep. Gerald Ford of Michigan.

THE ACTIVISTS are at work and it is going to be interesting to see how far they get.

By concerting their forces they have stolen a long march on the administration. The 1960 Democratic national platform and Kennedy in his campaign promised that new civil rights legislation would be the "first order of business" of the 87th Congress. The administration did not initiate any significant civil rights legislation at all.

Now the Republicans are pre-empting the action.

THE REPUBLICAN bill is broad in scope and moderate in application. It would put the Civil Rights Commission on a permanent basis. It would strengthen the committee already working to end employment discirimination by any firm or union working on a government contract. It would arm the attorney general with clearer power in desegregation suits, clarify literacy tests for voting.

President Kennedy has said that he is going to make civil rights legislation an early order of business. It is a little late. It will be welcome, but the initiative is now in other hands.

HOW TO PLAY

WINNING BRIDGE

By ALFRED SHEINWOLD

You May Not Have To Make Your Opponent Walk Plank

If you're going to throw an opponent into the lead it may not be necessary to make him walk the plank. He may prefer to step back modestly and let his partner bask in the spotlight.

Opening lead — ♠ K

West opens the king of spades, and you win with the ace. A glance shows you three probable losers: one in spades, one in diamonds, and one in clubs.

STANDARD

The standard method of playing the hand is to give the opponents their three tricks, meanwhile scolding North for bidding five hearts.

"Just double them at four spades," you scream, "and we'd murder the bums."

A slightly better method is to make the contract first and then complain. Even if you have no clear plan of play you can stumble into the right line by keeping your eyes open.

CASH WINNERS

After winning the first spade, draw two rounds of trumps and cash all of your top cards in the side suits.

You notice that West shows out of hearts and clubs.

Now lead a diamond, and allow the opponents to squabble over the trick. The winner of the trick has to walk the plank to a watery grave.

YOU RUFF

If West wins with the jack of diamonds, he can cash a spade trick but then must lead another spade.

You ruff in dummy and discard a club from your hand, thus avoiding the loss of a club trick.

If East overtakes with the queen of diamonds, he can cash a club trick but must then lead a club or a diamond.

You ruff in dummy and discard a spade from your hand, thus avoiding the loss of a spade trick.

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE — Here's how to work it:

is L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophies, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

THE RARE lace paper Valentine at left is the 100 year old sentiment card by Mansell, and it has served to inspire this year's cards such as the 1963 one at right.

Valentines Conceal Messages

Chances are you are one of those who have contributed toward six million valentines sent through the mails this year. If so, each symbol on your card carried a special meaning of its own.

A ROSE, for example, indicates that you'd like to be in the arms of your loved one.

A fan has been used for ages to keep a man guessing. It "hides" a girl's emotions. On a valentine, a fan means "open up your heart."

RIBBONS on valentines stem from the days when "knights were bold." When a knight rode into battle, he gave his lady fair a silk ribbon to wear in her hair—meaning she was "tied up" until he returned.

THE WORD "lace" comes from the Latin word meaning "share" or "noose."

In early England, St. Valentine's Eve was similar to our present day Halloween. After supper, groups of children sang songs beneath windows for cakes and candies.

Just 100 years ago, a popular valentine contained a mirror surrounded by lace paper in which a flattered young woman saw herself as someone's "heart's desire."

DURING Elizabethan times in England, a popular pastime was to toss an apple or an orange, with a valentine attached, through a window of a girl who was not already spoken for.

If an Englishman refused the request of a young lady to be her valentine and future mate, he had to make amends by buying her silks and satins.

Will your Valentine carry a secret message?

Author Will Address Club On Extra-Sensory Perception

Do you have ESP — extra-sensory perception? Can you use it to improve your life?

Robert Galen Chaney of Los Angeles, author of "The Inner Way," says the answer is yes to both questions. He will give the details in a lecture titled "Sixth Sense—Threshhold of the Unknown" at the Sausalito Woman's Club on Feb. 21.

Mrs. Emmet L. Rixford, program chairman for the day, will introduce Chaney to members and guests at 2:30 p.m. at the clubhouse.

IN HIS LECTURE Chaney presents the basic principles involved in every ESP experience and how to apply them in daily life. He is among the world's authorities on ESP, mysticism and ancient esoteric teachings. More than 25 years of research and experiment have given him a broad base of information concerning these and such other subjects as prophetic visions of famous people, intuition, hynotism, yoga and the like.

ROBERT CHANEY

Chaney's radio program "Quest Eternal" has been heard on several radio stations, as well as on television programs.

"On Quest Eternal" he has interviewed scientists, movie stars, business men, authors, lecturers, psychologists, ministers, professional athletes and many others about their personal experiences with ESP, telepathy, psychic experiences and other unusual adventures.

AS DIRECTOR of Astara Foundation he heads an organization of thousands of members in 60 countries with branch offices in Switzerland and South Africa.

YOUNGSTERS' FUN

Make Your Own Decorations For Valentine's Day Party

For centuries Feb. 14 has been commemorated as a "special day for love" in honor of a gentle soul who lived a long time ago—St. Valentine. St. Valentine's Day this year will be celebrated by young and old alike with the customary Valentine cards and parties.

Youngsters particularly love to exchange Valentines. It's estimated that some 52 million children under 14 years of age, are slated to send a dozen each or so to classmates, teachers and friends.

FOR FUN AT a juvenile Valentine party, make a mail box in which little guests can deposit cards on arriving. During the course of the festivities let the hosting youngster distribute the "mail." With the help of Valentine gift wrap paper, you can easily make a mail box from an old shoe box. Here are some other ideas for Valentine's Day party givers.

For a party ice-breaker when the youngsters arrive, have each of them cut a giant heart shape out of gift wrap paper and write his name on it. Ribbons are stapled to the heart and it's tied around the neck to become a name tag. It could also double as a bib for small fry when ice cream's on the menu. Add to the fun with a matching hat quickly made from a half circle of paper taped together.

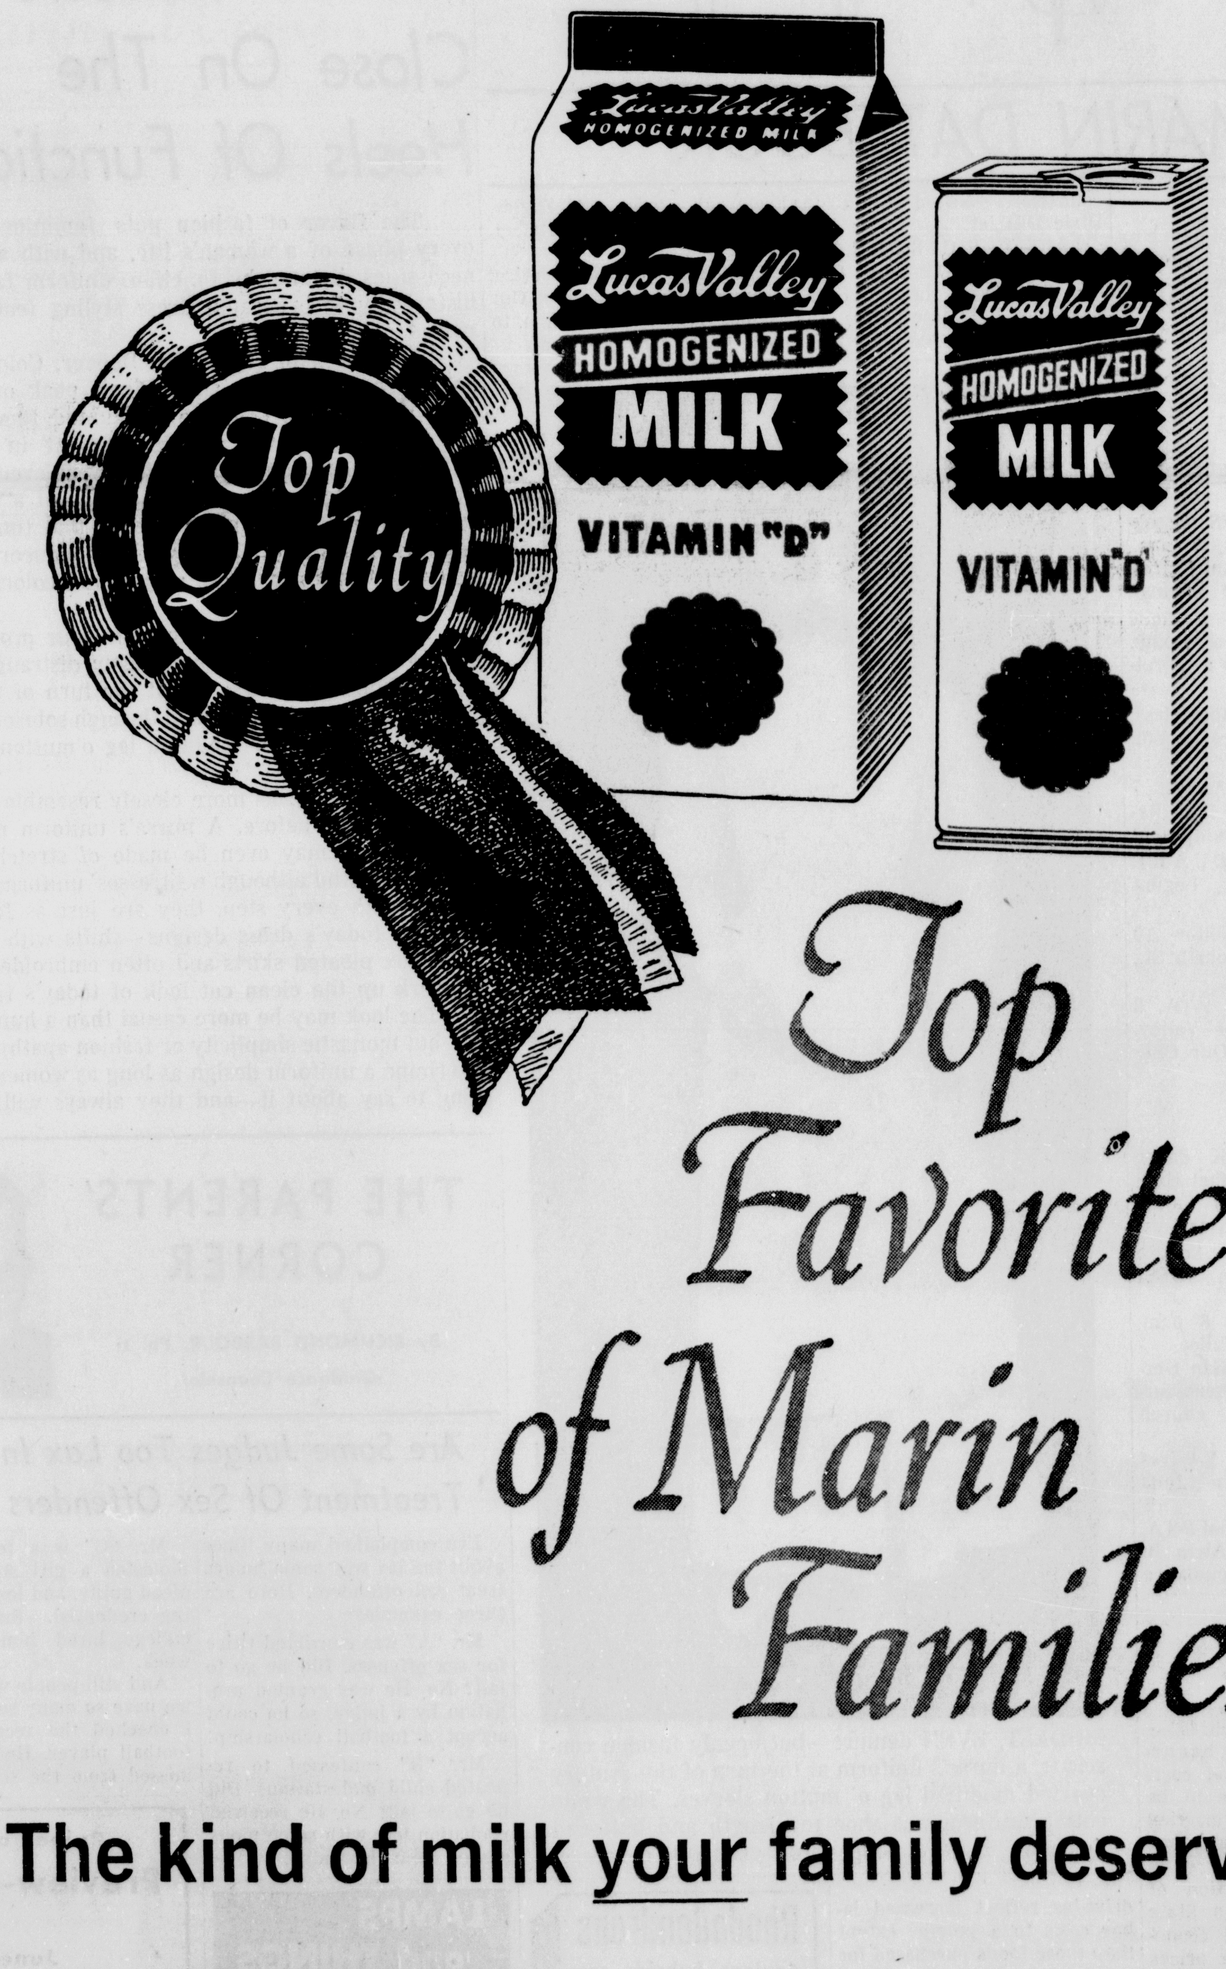

OATMEAL BOXES can be transformed into a King and Queen of Hearts when covered with Valentine paper with hearts and flowers design. The King and Queen can be used to hold miniature gifts or as a centerpiece at a Valentine shower or engagement party, around which gifts can be stacked.

Valentine gift wrap papers can be effectively used for Valentine decorating too. Use it to create a modern version of an old-fashioned lovers' bower for an intimate Valentine's Day dinner. A large heart-shaped screen is made to hang on a wall or stand atop a buffet. Matching heart-shaped place mats are cut out and complemented with red roses and soft candlelight.

Speaking of Valentine cards, they too can be a source of ideas for every type of Valentine celebration. One such idea is to use those the family exchange to make a wall decoration. Each card is mounted on a piece of cardboard covered with any scrap of fabric handy and decorated to whim with scraps of lace and ribbon. A ribbon loop for hanging completes each plaque.

THE AMERICAN WOMAN

500,000 Females Tangle With Law

By HARRY FERGUSON

WASHINGTON (UPI)— Statistics gathered by the Federal Bureau of Investigation show that women are eight times as law abiding as men. About 500,000 females are arrested each year in the United States for offenses ranging from homicide to gambling, but the equivalent figure for men is almost four million.

Drunkenness gets more women in trouble than anything else, and about 112,000 of them are arrested for it each year. The other principal reasons are theft, disorderly conduct, prostitution, assault and vagrancy. Some 800 women in the United States are charged with killing somebody on purpose every year and about 2,200 get picked up for carrying guns or other weapons. Among the crimes that the ladies largely leave to the men are forgery and counterfeiting.

IT IS impossible to say the American woman is more moral or less moral than her sisters elsewhere. The American woman has been studied, analyzed, crossexamined and packaged into many tables of statistics, but no equivalent research has been done in other countries. Morals are flexible from one generation of women to another. At the turn of the century a woman who exposed the calf of her leg was considered to be a loose creature. Now the bikini bathing suit adorns our landscape.

A discussion of female morality almost always is taken to mean her sexual morals and here, too, the signposts are confusing. Sexual relations before marriage are mandatory for some primitive civilizations. In the United States it is frowned upon and thousands of welfare workers have written millions of words on how to prevent it.

RUDYARD KIPLING was exercising poetic license when he tried to argue that women in all stations of life work from the same basic moral standards and that "the colonel's lady and Judy O'Grady are sisters under their skins." Studies of the sexual behavior of women stress that environment, education, economic position and religion exert powerful influences on the morals of women. Case histories of prostitutes are filled with stories of girls who came from broken homes or whose parents earned insufficient money to keep the family pulled together.

The department of health, education and welfare says that 224,330 illegitimate children were born in the United States in 1960. It does not contend, of course, that this was the total of unmarried women who conceived because it makes no allowance for abortions. The study also notes that there is no way to determine how many illegitimate births go unregistered.

The rate of illegitimate births outraced the population growth between 1940 and 1960. It was three times as large in 1960. The District of Columbia, with 55.8 illegitimate births per thousand, was the highest in the nation for white women. Delaware, with 347.7 per thousand, had the highest ratio for non-white women.

SEVERAL YEARS ago Dr. Alfred C. Kinsey of the University of Indiana assembled a team of scientists to study the sexual behavior of the American woman. He persuaded 5,940 women to tell all, or at least almost all, but he made no claim that he had developed scientifically precise information. For instance, his interviews were confined to white women and did not include women in prison where you logically would find the least moral element.

Nearly 50 per cent of the women interviewed said they had sexual relations before they were married. Showing how moral standards vary from age to age, Kinsey found that the rate of pre-marital relations was twice as high among women born after 1900 than it was for those born before the turn of the century. He asked the married women whether they had any regrets:

No regret—69 per cent; some regret—13 per cent; definite regret—11 per cent.

ABOUT 26 PER CENT of the married women interviewed said they had been unfaithful to their husbands before they reached the age of 40. Seventeen per cent of them said it had happened in their thirties and early forties. Kinsey noted a definite relationship between deeply religious women and those uninterested in religion. In all age groups the non-religious women exceeded the devout by better than two to one.

Forty per cent of the women thought their husbands knew they were being unfaithful. Nine per cent thought their husbands suspected things but couldn't prove it. Fifty-one per cent believed their husbands were ignorant of what was going on. When Kinsey asked the women whether they intended to continue extra-marital relations, he got these answers: yes, seven per cent; doubtful 14 per cent; no, 79 per cent.

DIVORCE statistics in the United States have been holding rather steady in recent years and roughly one marriage in six is terminated by divorce or annulment. The American woman has an easier time than almost anybody in ending a marriage thanks to the legislatures in such states as Nevada and Arkansas.

Married Men Save On Food

EAST LANSING, Mich. (UPI)— Restaurant-frequenting bachelors beware—your food costs are going to continue to be well above the amount married men have to spend to eat home-cooked meals.

This is the prediction of Mary Zehner, Michigan State University agricultural economist, who says average prices of food consumed at home is expected to change little from last year.

Prices of food consumed away from home, however, probably will continue a long-term upward trend this year, Miss Zehner said.

"Food costs on meals bought in restaurant, cafeterias and drive-ins reflect increased labor costs to a greater extent than those foods purchased for the family table," the home economist said.

Marin Women

Fashion Follows Close On The Heels Of Function

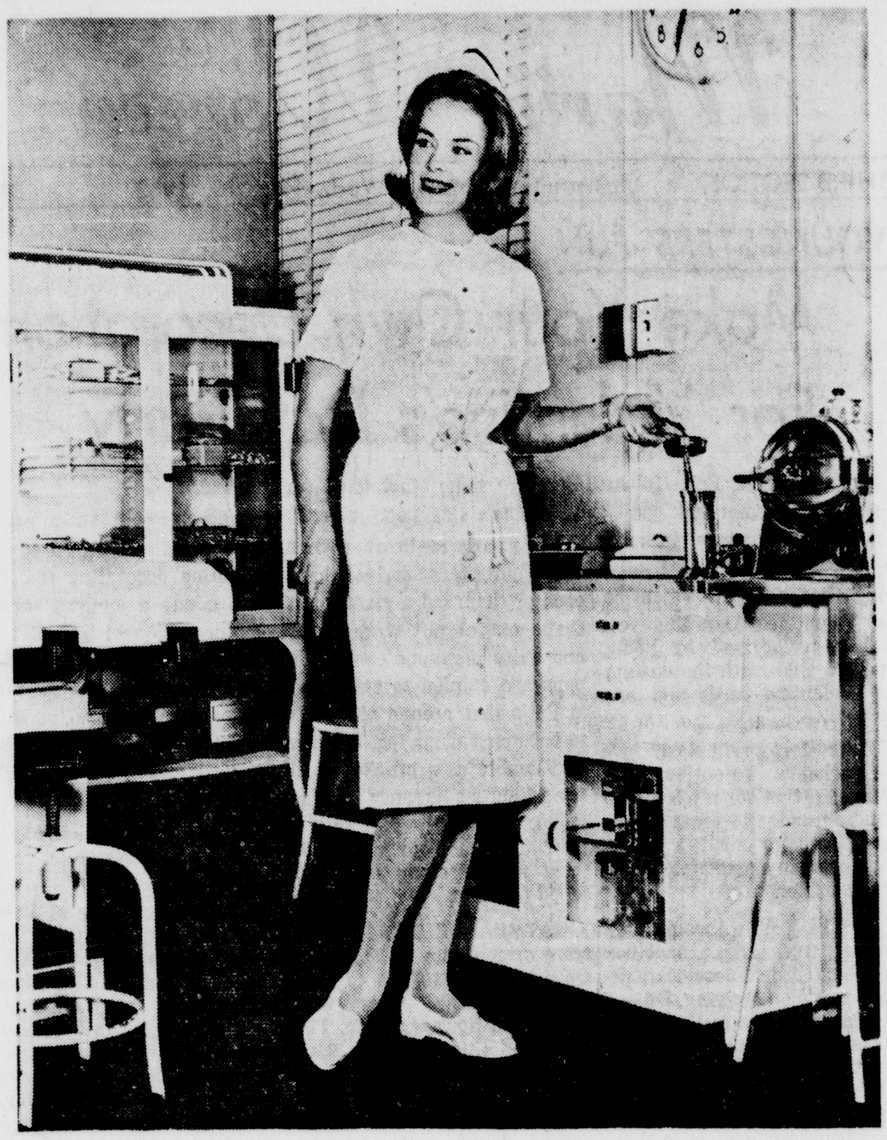

The flavor of fashion puts feminine spice into every phase of a woman's life, and with a bow to the necessities dictated by function, uniform fashions have historically incorporated dress styling features of the period.

'Way back in 1859 when Denver, Colorado, was a gold rush boom town and "Pike's peak or bust" was the slogan of the day, the undaunted femininity of a waitress' uniform was a cheering sight in what were often bleak surroundings. Ruffles were everywhere possible—even cascading down the back of a skirt over a bustle. Fashion in the far west at that time could not help but be part of the aggressive pioneer spirit, and waitresses' uniforms were as gay and colorful as availability permitted.

Nurses, engaged in a more serious profession, did not, of course, startle their already distraught patients with ribbons and bows; but at the turn of the contury a nurse's femininity peeked through sobriety when she insisted on puffed or modified leg o'mutton sleeves on her uniform.

Today, uniforms more closely resemble dress fashions than ever before. A nurse's uniform may have a pleated skirt, may even be made of stretch cotton or knit jersey. And although waitresses' uniforms no longer flounce with every step, they are just as fashion conscious as today's dress designs—shifts with drawstring belts, box pleated skirts and often embroidery or tucking perk up the clean cut look of today's fashion.

The look may be more casual than a hundred years ago, but monastic simplicity or fashion apathy will never determine a uniform design as long as women have anything to say about it—and they always will.

FASHION COMES up with a new idea in nurse's uniforms . . . the Dacron knit jersey with stabilized stitch to prevent sagging. The collarless shirt type uniform has a self drawstring tie belt and tiny button front closure.

Are Some Judges Too Lax In Treatment Of Sex Offenders

I've complained many times about the lax way some judges treat sex offenders. Here are three examples:

Mr. "A" was convicted twice for sex offenses. Did he go to jail? No. He was granted probation by a judge, so he could accept a football scholarship!

Mr. "B" confessed to repeated child molestations. Did he go to jail? No. He received probation too, with some pious advice from the judge.

Mr. "C" is a teacher who molested a girl student. He plead guilty, and lost his teaching credential. But a nearby college hired him the next week.

And still people wonder why we have so many sex offenses! I checked the record of the football player. He is 21. Dismissed from the service after his first sex crime conviction, he was placed in a treatment center for deviates. The doctors there diagnosed him as a "sexual psychopath . . . a menace to the health and safety of others." Even so he was released and he promptly repeated his crime. It was for the second offense that he received probation. He stands six feet two inches and weighs over 200 pounds. What chance do his victims have?

Why the easy treatment of sex offenders? I think it is because some judges hear so many cases they get hardened to sex crimes. They lose their insight and their capacity to judge.

Do the judges where you live give probation to your chronic sex offenders? Do your college authorities ignore sex crimes when hiring new faculty members? You might check and see. Remember this, we will continue to have an appallingly high sex crime rate as long as offenders go untreated.

A Defense For Homework

ST. LOUIS (UPI)—School principal Quincy C. Dickey says teachers shouldn't give homework as punishment.

"Homework," Dickey says, "should serve two primary functions—to develop proficiencies in a particular skill, and to allow the pupil an opportunity to demonstrate this skill to his parents."

"If the weekends and one evening in the middle of the week are left free, the pupil has an opportunity to develop appreciation and skill in art and music and to participate more fully in the social life of the family and the community."

Homework is important to the high school student, especially if he intends to go to college, Dickey adds.

In college, Dickey said, the student will have to spend about 30 hours a week in study — twice the amount of time he'll spend in class.

Green Mink Newest Symbol Of Luxury

By JEAN SPRAIN WILSON

NEW YORK (AP)—A woman may become a malcontent about her "minky-looking" mink next year when she sees that the lady's across the street is greener.

Green mink is the luxury symbol of the industry for 1963. It is one that will require plenty of greenbacks to own.

Just how much the verdant minks will be worth is hard to estimate, says a spokesman for EMBA, an organization of 5,000 mink breeders. But the law of supply and demand will certainly up the price tag astronomically.

At the New York Auction house in February 7,500 of the natural (not dyed) pelts will be sold to the highest bidders. The rivalry among manufacturers is expected to be considerable for the quantity cannot satisfy more than 150 women's dreams for full length green minks.

IF THE BIDDING is anything like two years ago when silvery mink pelts called "morning light" were brought to the auction house floor, new green coats could cost more than $35,000 each. At that time the furriers eagerly bid up the price to $500 a pelt. Approximately 70 pelts are needed for each coat.

IN THEIR RANCHES in the Northwest, the creative little animals have been busily developing their new fur hue for the past four years. Furriers describe it as pale olive colored. The breeders claim it as an offshoot of tourmaline, a light beige mink mutation which went to market in 1958. Instead of the beige, however, the background hairs have a greenish cast, an effect which has been tagged opaltourmaline.

IS IT POSSIBLE that red, yellow, or even orange minks are in the future?

An independent thinking set of parents genetically creates a few babies wearing hitherto unseen pelt colors. If the breeders are pleased with the minks' work, they supervise carefully the love life of these offspring, making certain they marry the proper and related mink.

Calettis Feted On Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Caletti of San Anselmo were honored at a buffet dinner in celebration of their 60th wedding anniversary Feb. 2. It was given by their two daughters, Mrs. Paul Bissola of San Rafael and Mrs. Frank Lazzarini of San Francisco, and their husbands, and their son, Peter Caletti of Fairfax, and his wife. Attending were 125 relatives, including four grandchildren and four great grandchildren, and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Caletti were married in their native Italy Feb. 2, 1903. They lived in the commune of Cremona and exchanged vows in Milan. He came to Marin County in 1905 and his wife and children joined him in 1912. He is a gardener and still continues to work although he is 83 years old. His wife is 79.

Mesdames Mrs. Huntley Bennett is serving as vice chairman and Mrs. Clarence Amonette is chairman of models. In charge of sponsors will be Mrs. Mozart Kaufmann and Mrs. H. D. Harrington of Kentfield is in charge of reservations.

Mardikian Tells Lincoln Day Meet Of America's Blessings

"How fourtunate you and I are to be Americans" said George Mardikian in his Lincoln's Day address at the luncheon meeting of Marin Unit of Pro America, Monday at San Francisco Yacht Club, Belvedere. Mardikian, who suffered through the capture of his native Armenia b ythe Turks, and was rescued and smuggled out by Americans of the Near East Relief, began his life at 19 .n America as a poor immigrant. He came to San Francisco from New York, and was paid $12 a week for washing dishes at old Coffee Dan's. He worked after that at Clinton's Cafeteria and Compton's and later became manager.

Mardikian went to Fresno during the depression years and because he had faith in this country opened a restaurant there. He returned to San Francisco to become one of its most famous restaurateurs and owner of Omar Khayam's Restaurant. In his recently published book "Song of America" he sets forth his concepts.

Mardikian voiced some of these Monday. He said "There is nothing wrong with work. We have to build our own society. Here in this country I found the dignity of man. I believe in our young people. There are opportunities today for them far greater than in my time."

Mardikian told of his lasting friendships with two presidents of the United States, Herbert Hoover, who was milking cows at the age of nine and Dwight Eisenhower, who had to wear his mother's high buttoned shoes to a party because there were not enough shoes for all the family.

Mardikian declared, "Nobody's worried about tomorrow. We need to love to work and believe in the dignity of man."

The speaker, who had rushed back from Washington, D.C. to keep his appointment Monday, was introduced by Mrs. Edwin Long. The meeting marked the 30th anniversary of the founding of Pro America by the late Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt. Mrs. LeRoy Fairchild was chairman of the day and Mrs. Floyd Bradley, president of Marin County Unit, presided at the meeting.

Ed Mahoney's Give A Brunch For Couple Soon-To-Be-Wed

By FLORENCE DONNELLY

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Mahoney of Ross entertained at a brunch Sunday honoring Evelyn Hollingshead of Sacramento and San Francisco and James Clinton Taggart of Big Rapids, Mich., and Palm Beach, Fla., who will be married at St. Cecilia's Church in San Francisco Saturday. The reception following the wedding will take place at the Forest Hills Clubhouse.

The Mahoneys are long-time friends of Jim's family, and at the brunch were his mother, Mrs. James Taggart of Big Rapids and Palm Beach, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Taggart of Palm Beach and Palm Springs, Calif., Mrs. Rosemary Rochex, Barbara Sheehan and the daughter of the hosts, Kathy Mahoney.

JUDGE CARLOS FREITAS of San Rafael was honored last Thursday at a birthday luncheon, a stag affair, given by his brother, Walter Freitas, at Peacock Gap Golf and Country Club. Also present were another brother, Louis Freitas and Stephen Tichenor. That evening, Judge Freitas and his wife went to a dinner and theater party in San Francisco and the following day they left for Palm Springs.

Joining in the festivities were Mathew Hayden and John Mayer of Belvedere, Paul Kraus of Corinthian Island, Craig Keener of Novato, and George Berticevich of Tiburon.

IN AN ARTICLE in the February issue of Seventeen magazine, written by a young Belvedere sportswoman. The author, Cathy Atterbury of 41 Bellvue Avenue, advises "Partipate in sports for the fun of it and whatever the game, always play your best." The freshman at Willamette University, Salem, Ore. admits "I love to win . . . it's hard to explain the exhilaration of trying to make it happen by giving every last ounce of effort that's in you. . . . Sometimes you can't win, no matter what; but if I've done my best I don't mind losing . . . it gives me a goal to try harder next time."

Although the athletic girl is skilled in sailing (she has raced "everything in sight"), she loves to swim, dive, play hockey, volleyball, basketball, and do water and snow skiing. But she says the sport she likes the most is tennis. Her prowess in the game brought her and her partner the championship trophy in the Belvedere Tennis Club's annual mixed doubles tournament.

In addition to her physical skills, Cathy won a half tuition scholarship to Willamette where she hopes to major in political science and French. A June 1962 graduate of Dominican Upper (high) school, Cathy was a member of the National Honor Society and Optima (the school honor society), the school newspaper and yearbook staffs, the library, French and tennis club, was a California Scholarship Federation Gold Seal-Bearer, won the Bank of America Achievement Award in liberal arts, was elected class vice-president for three years, captain of the "Roundheads," a school athletic team which competed in hockey, volleyball, basketball, swimming and tennis events, and was delegate to the Model UN at the University of California, Berkeley.

The talented teen's hopes for the future including learning "as many foreign languages as I can" and a career in either teaching or the foreign service.

Marin Women

THE BETROTHAL of Nancy Horikoshi and Hale Prather has been announced by her parents, the Rev. and Mrs. Y. Casper Horikoshi of Sacramento.

Nancy Horikoshi Engaged To Marry Hale Prather

The engagement of Nancy Horikoshi and Hale Prather of San Geronimo has been announced by her parents, The Rev. and Mrs. Y. Casper Horikoshi of Sacramento.

Nancy is the sister of Dr. Elliot Horikoshi, U.S. Army; and Katherine and Peter Horikoshi of Sacramento. She was graduated from Oakland High School and the University of California, where she was a member of Prytanian women's honor society and Mortar Board. She is employed by the Department of Social Welfare for Alameda County.

Hale is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Prather of San Geronimo and the brother of Nancy and Margaret Prather. He was graduated from Sir Francis Drake High School and Deep Springs College in Bishop. He is now a student at the University of California, where he is president of the American Field Service. He is employed at Cowell Hospital on the campus.

SALLIE LEE JOHNSON

Sallie Lee Johnson To Be April Bride

Mr. and Mrs. William Harold Johnson of Tiburon are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Sallie Lee, to Richard James Zoerb of Wauwatosa, Wis.

The bride-elect is the sister of Jay Carter Johnson and Victoria Jane Johnson, both of Tiburon. A graduate of El Camino High School in Sacramento, she attended California State Polytechnic College in San Luis Obispo and the College of Marin, and is employed by the Ford Motor Co. in San Francisco.

She is the granddaughter of Victor Klinker and Mrs. Mabel Klinker, both of San Francisco, and the late Mr. and Mrs. J. Harold Johnson.

Richard is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Henry Zoerb of Wauwatosa, and the brother of Paul Douglas Zoerb.

He was graduated from Wauwatosa High School and attended the University of Wisconsin and the College of Marin. He is serving with the Air Force stationed at Hamilton Air Force Base.

The couple plans an April 13 wedding at Chapel of Great Communion, Pacific School of Religion, Berkeley.

Tamalpais Centre Club Will Honor New Members

A luncheon in honor of the new members of the Tamalpais Centre Women's Club will be held on Friday, at 12:30 p.m. at the club house.

New members are Mesdames C. M. Arnold, Grace Fiscus, Robert Abbott, James Campbell, Nelson Hall, William Glen Courtright, and Oscar Olsen. Each new member will be introduced by her sponsor.

Mrs. Marius Righetti is chairman for the luncheon and assisting her will be last year's new members Mesdames William Newlon, Norman Klott, V. A. Brussolo, Roy Leuterdt, F. S. Tandy, Lewis L. Cummings, Arthur Roth, Harry S. Calkins, Andrew M. Komora, W. A. Magee and Cecil B. Brous.

Tamalpais Centre was the first Woman's Club to be established in Marin County and was founded in 1909. Mrs. C. C. Miller reviewed the original minutes of the first meeting and has produced a drama in which present members will represent the original members and wear appropriate costumes. Mrs. Adaline Kent was the founder of the club.

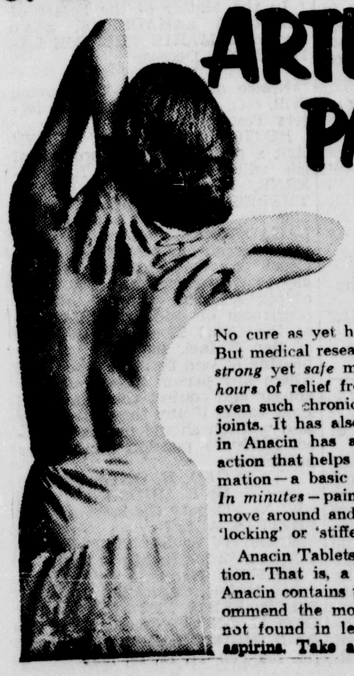

The program will follow the luncheon.

Try Green Plants

If you have dull strips of wall between windows and floors, too narrow for effective use of pictures, try placing flowers or small green plants in wall containers there. Such "ugly duckling" areas then will hold "their own" in your decorative scheme.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

VAN DELLEN

A 31-year-old New York City bank clerk was sitting at his desk next to the window on the 11th floor when he suddenly felt a piercing pain in the left arm and chest. He saw blood and collapsed. An ambulance was summoned and he was rushed to the hospital where an emergency operation was done to save his life.

The report on this unusual mishap appeared in the New England Journal of Medicine. It was obvious to his physicians, Dr. Sigmund Mage and Dr. Kenneth Chiache Sze, that the man had been shot because of the bullet wound but no explosive sound had been heard. A ballistics expert readily identified the weapon as a stud of the type fired by power actuated tools. These tools were being employed in the construction of a building on the street opposite the one in which he was sitting.

THE STUD GUN has been a boon to the construction industry and the accident rate is extremely low, considering the number of times it has been used daily. But it is a lethal weapon and fatalities have been reported.

It fires a shot by an explosive discharge. The gun utilizes the power of a blank cartridge to fire a metallic stud into concrete, steel, or wood. This gives some idea behind the power of this weapon.

ACCORDING to the authors, injuries are caused by ricocheting of the stud, especially when the operator is careless or inexperienced. Safety guides have been issued but they are concerned mainly with the training and certification of operators, the use and care of the tools, and safety devices. Only a few states have passed laws concerning the use of these power actuated tools.

The same group of physicians also treated a working man who was hit in the abdomen by a stud that went astray. It had passed through a 4-inch wall made of plaster and gypsum block. Thus technical progress brings us another health hazard.

Dr. Van Dellen will answer questions on medical topics if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request.)

RADIOACTIVE PILL

H. W. writes: I have heard there is a pill costing $150 that does just as much good for an overactive thyroid as an operation. Do you have any information on this product?

REPLY

You may refer to a pill containing radioactive iodine, but the price seems exorbitant. This product depresses thyroid activity through the effects of the radioactive rays on the cells of the gland.

SLEEPING PILL HABIT

M. L. writes: What kind of symptoms does a person develop who takes too many sleeping pills over a long period?

REPLY

The signs of chronic barbiturate intoxication include increased irritability, emotionalism, and untidiness in dress and habits. The individual thinks slowly, his speech is thick, and he may become dizzy or slightly off balance when walking.

HALOS AND STARS

M. M. writes: I am 67 years old and whenever I look at the moon or street lights I see what looks like a green halo around them; and oncoming auto headlights look like six-pointed stars.

REPLY

Bring these manifestations to the attention of your eye physician. Colored halos may indicate glacoma. A simple test will be needed to determine whether the pressure within the eyeball is normal or increased.

NAIL REGROWTH

A. P. writes: If a finger nail is removed completely by a doctor, will it grow back?

REPLY

Yes, provided the root (matrix) has not been destroyed.

CONGRESSMAN AND SAVINGS GROUP

REA Group Gets Look At Travel Dollars

Travel is a multi-million-dollar annual business in the Redwood Empire, and this week the nine-county region got its first overall look at those who spend travel dollars, what "sells" them, and what visitors demand.

The information is contained in a 26-page survey released by the Redwood Empire Assn., according to Paul Leahy of San Rafael, Marin County REA chairman.

Its purpose: To find out how to get more visitors into the Empire, and how to keep them longer. Results were made available today to area chambers of commerce, county supervisors, and travel-oriented groups.

REA sent out 2,500 questionnaires last summer to past and potential visitors, in a program of regional self-analysis directed by an REA committeeman, Fred R. Roper, assistant advertising manager for Standard Oil Co. of California.

The questionnaire drew more than 700 replies. Distilling them in scientific fashion, Roper deduced that visitors want:

1. More specific information, especially about accommodations (motels, resorts, camping and trailer facilities, including exact costs for family vacations.

2. More informative local information centers which would encourage tourists to extend their stays.

3. "Package" tours and special resort-motel-campground arrangements for touring groups, which would induce many to spend off-season holidays in the Redwood Empire.

Roper said much of the information gathered during the six-month survey will be incorporated in a new Redwood Empire Assn. "wayside" folder, due for public distribution in March. It also will be invaluable as a guide for future policy of the travel-promotion organization, its membership and affiliated organization, such as chambers of commerce.

Some other facts:

1. Of those who answered, representing virtually every state in the Union, 677 took or planned trips into the Redwood Empire.

2. More than 72 per cent made trips in June, July and August; with August the top month at 30.6 per cent.

3. Carloads of two were most prevalent (37.2 per cent), followed by foursomes (22 per cent).

4. Two-day stays were most popular (21.8 per cent) then three days (18.6 per cent) slackening until those who stayed a week or more rose again to 17 per cent.

5. The vast majority — 448 out of 460 who answered this question—traveled by private auto. One man reported he toured the area on a chartered bus with 62 other "senior citizens."

6. California produced the greatest number of tourists and prospects—66.3 per cent, with Southern California accounting for slightly more than half that total. Oregon and Washington led all other states with around 4 per cent each.

Of this "point of origin" finding Roper declared:

"There's an old maxim that your present customers are your best prospects. Not everyone in California has visited the Redwood Empire—or even knows about it."

How To Make More Money, Still Show Lower Profits?

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP)—How can you make more money and still show lower profits? It's a matter of bookkeeping, quite legal but complicated this year by new tax rules on wear and tear that some companies are using and some aren't.

For most manufacturing companies the new rules make profits look smaller than they would under the old. But a few others would gain nothing by the change. And for some — notably the railroads—the new bookkeeping can make profits look bigger.

This can confuse even the accountants, who aren't agreed always on just how profits should be figured.

And this year it can make the profit picture for the nation harder than ever for the layman to grasp. It also affects comparisons with 1961 earnings statements in deciding how a company or industry is doing.

Changes in the depreciation rules—how to report wear and tear on equipment and plant as a deduction from gross earnings before taxes—are aimed at updating some obsolete methods that industry complained were both unfair and a block to modernization and expansion programs.

For many companies the new rules mean that a machine can be written off for tax purposes much faster than before the rules were changed last July. That is, there's a bigger annual deduction, but this runs out in fewer years. To this Congress added a 7 per cent tax credit for any new equipment purchased as part of the drive to spur economic growth.

Increased depreciation becomes a cost of doing business to be substracted with the others from operating revenues in determining gross earnings.

This lowers the size of the reported earnings, the corporate tax on them, about one half, and thus results in a lower reported net income, the remaining half. So both the Internal Revenue Service and the stockholders get lower earnings reports.

But the actual cash from the increased depreciation goes into corporate reserves —money that can be used in the business. The firm's finances are sounder, even if its reported profits shrink.

Examples can be found in the earnings statements of many of the steel companies for 1962. U. S. Steel increased its depreciation allowance by 44 million dollars, Bethlehem by 37.5 million dollars, Youngstown Sheet and Tube by 18 million dollars, National by 17.7 million dollars. This cut gross earnings and tax payments. And Bethlehem for one estimated that this brought its 1962 net profit 18 million dollars lower than it would have been under the old depreciation policies.

All this can befog the total profits picture. You have to know now how each individual company is keeping its books. And if that isn't the way it did last year, make allowances in deciding whether it's doing better, and by how much.

Jewish Speaker For Sabbath Services Set

Aron Feibusch, president of the Jewish Council of 1933, will speak at Sabbath services of Congregation Kol Shofer at 8:15 p.m. Friday at the Marin Jewish Community Center, Forbes and Mission avenues, San Rafael.

Feibusch's group was instrumental in providing the loan of two Torahs at the founding of Kol Shofar. These Sefer Torahs were hidden in Germany through the Nazi era.

Touring By Auto Will Be More Pleasure For Redwood Empire

Auto touring for touring's sake, a lost art in many parts of the nation, will be more pleasure than ever in the Redwood Empire of Northern California and southern Oregon this year.

Aside from such tested scenic bonuses for the motorist as giant redwoods, a rugged coastline, and the Golden Gate Bridge, travelers taking the Redwood Highway and its offshoots from the Bay Area northward will enjoy new sights and wider pavements in 1963.

The famed Redwood Highway (U.S. 101) has added several multi-million-dollar freeway links since 1960. Last fall, a 13 and one-half mile stretch north of Santa Rosa to a point past Healdsburg cut many minutes off driving time. The previous year, six miles of the Redwood Freeway — in southern Humboldt County—eliminated several dangerous, narrow curves. The same thing held true for a similar link in 1960.

Now these two expressways are joined, leaving the former highway as "the Avenue of the Giants," a scenic bypass down the valley of the Eel River where sightseers can enjoy the 300-foot redwoods at their leisure. A third "leg" of Redwood Freeway will open in one year. Further north, the state has widened and straightened Highway 101 in a dozen spots, and will spend 50 million dollars or more on this route in the immediate future.

One dramatic timesaver for drivers is the Randolph Collier Tunnel, a seven-million-dollar shaft just south of the Oregon border on Highway 199, between Crescent City and Grants Pass. When opened this summer, the tunnel will cut out 122 curves and a half-hour's running time.

The tunnel also will be a key link in the new Winnemucca-to-the-Sea Highway, 495-mile all-paved "Old West" trail from north-central Nevada to the Pacific. This route is expected to open new vistas for travelers into the Redwood Empire, since it eliminates 200 miles of driving between Salt Lake City and Crescent City.

Officers Elected At Drake High

The school's German Club has elected Bob Pool as president; Richard Vacha, vice president, and Ron Skellenger, secretary-treasurer.

Drake Diplomats, the school's club to promote international understanding, chose Bruce Egnew for president; Jan Shell and Sherry Wilson, secretaries, and Lisa Rossman, treasurer.

Illegal To Change Car's Turn Signals

SACRAMENTO (AP) — The Highway Patrol has warned it is illegal to change the front turn signals on older cars from white to amber to make them look like the 1963 models, which are factory-equipped with amber turn signals.

Commissioner Bradford Crittenden said the modification violates a vehicle code section that prohibits lighting equipment modifications unless the modifications have been approved by the patrol.

Crittenden warned that amber bulbs, and lenses, bulb covers, lens filters, lens dies or sprays have not been approved. He said many companies are selling these products, and officers have noticed them all on pre-1963 cars.

Gets Fairs Post

Marcelle McCoy, secretary manager of the Marin Art and Garden Fair, has been named to the Western Fairs Assn. exhibit design committee of 1963, Charles D. Warner of Chino, committee president, announced.
